SOISSONS FALLS TO GERMANS

ALLIED SOLDIERS IN DESPERATE FIGHT TO HALT KAISER'S MEN

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, May 29.—Masses of Allied reserve troops are arriving constantly on the battle field, telegraphs the Havas correspondent on the French front. Perfect harmony exists between the French and British troops, who are co-operating mutually in defending the ground foot by foot and heroically delaying the Hun advance.

Allied movements, the correspondent adds, are being carried out in order and with assurances. Among the elements of confidence is the demeanor of the troops coming up to enter the fight. They are declared to be hopeful and in high spirits.

PARIS, May 29.—After a desperate resistance and fighting in the streets lasting several hours, the French have evacuated Soissons, which the Germans occupied, according to the official announcement from the War Office tonight.

BERLIN (via London) May 29.—The number of prisoners taken by the Germans on the Aisne battle front has increased to 25,000, says the German official communication issued today. They include one French and one English general.

The official report from headquarters tonight says:

"Near Soissons and between Soissons and Rheims we made fresh progress."

TITANIC BATTLE STILL RAGING.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, May 29.—The Germans advanced against the French lines again today after throwing further masses of troops into the battle.

Both flanks of the battle line were the scene of very heavy fighting by inferior numbers against superior, with the result that the Allies were obliged again to cede ground at some points.

Besides Von Boehm's and Von Below's armies many divisions of Von Hutier's troops were engaged. These especially trained units had participated in the first rush on March 21 and had since then been reconstituted.

An enormous number of light machine guns were employed by the Germans as well as a large fleet of tanks and much heavy and light artillery, while the German aviators were extremely active.

From the plain towards Juvincourt, Ville Aux Bois, Pontavert and Berry-au-Bac, numerous tanks came into action. For a considerable time the thin Allied line held out, but as the enemy debouched, wave after wave, the French and British, almost submerged, fell back slowly, getting across the river. Several British officers afterward sacrificed their lives in destroying the bridges.

Almost simultaneously overpowering enemy forces made their way to the top of the Chemin des Dames ridge and also to the western end of this road in the neighborhood of Chavignon and Malmaison, and the troops holding these points were obliged to recede.

EXECUTED WITH GREATEST PRECISION.

The Allied movement to the rear was executed with the greatest precision; there was no disorder and all the units kept in constant liaison.

In the direction of Soissons a readjustment of the front line became necessary, in consequence of the falling back of the center, where the Germans were pushing hardest.

The fighting has been continuous for two days through a country composed of a series of chalky plateaux, with winding valleys, whose slopes are half clothed with trees and containing many caverns. Along the top of one of the principal ridges runs the famous Chemin des Dames, from which valleys spread angularly toward the Aisne. The Allied possession of this ridge compromised the security of the German southern flank.

THIN ALLIED LINE FACES ADVANCE.

The enemy's torrent of divisions, rolling forward, found only the thinnest line of Allied troops facing the advance. These fell back before the irresistible pressure, retiring but struggling valiantly. The torrent as it moved forward became even stronger, for the Germans added new forces to it. Even the Aisne did not stay its rush.

The Germans followed the Allies across the river and at the same time spread along the sides, the Allies having decided that it was useless to sacrifice men in efforts to hold these positions with too few defenders.

The southern slopes of the Aisne Valley offered good ground to the Allies to stand had they been in sufficient force. But the Germans were in immensely superior numbers and the Allied commanders chose to retire to the plateau beyond and thus give an opportunity for the reserves to concentrate.

It is probable that, before the advancing German torrent weakens, further territory will fall into the hands of the enemy. That, however, in the opinion of French officers, will not affect the strength of the Allied forces which retain their striking power for the future.

FRENCH AND BRITISH WORK TOGETHER.

The French and British kept in the closest touch throughout the battle, working together as a single unit. The spirit of comradeship was touching. Both in the ranks and along the roads wounded men of both nations, when able to walk, were helping each other toward the dressing stations, while all the soldiers discriminately gave way, when possible, to the civilian refugees. The reserves are moving, proceeding toward points where they can oppose the German rush.

Among the Allied troops of whatever nationality, despite their lost positions, confidence is great that the desperate effort of the Germans will not succeed in inflicting more than a glancing blow on the Allied forces or that the present situation is only temporary.

ON WEST FRONT.

SUMMARY OF SITUATION.

In their violent attacks on the thirty-mile battle front running from Soissons eastward to the region northwest of Rheims, the German armies are continuing to force back the French and British on nearly every sector, says the Associated Press.

The fortified town of Soissons, the extreme left flank of the Allied battle line, has been occupied by the enemy, although the French are still holding tenaciously to its western environs, through which emerge the railway lines leading to Paris and Compiegne.

According to the German official communication, 25,000 prisoners, among them a French and a British general, have been taken, and numerous additional towns and vantage points all along the front have been captured.

RHEIMS SEEMS DOOMED.

Seemingly, Rheims, like Soissons, also is doomed to fall into the hands of the enemy, as the French War Office reports that the troops covering the famous cathedral town, which almost daily for several years has been the target for shells of hate from the German guns, have been withdrawn behind the Aisne canal northwest of the town.

On the sector directly southeast of Soissons the Germans now are fighting relatively twelve miles from where they started their drive Monday from Vauxaillon, while farther east, near Loupeigne and in the center in the vicinity of Savigny, wedges have been driven into a depth of approximately fifteen miles.

The Germans continually are throwing fresh divisions into the battle, but the British and French troops are keeping up their tactics of giving ground only when it is impossible longer to hold positions under the tremendous pressure of the enemy. Heavy casualties are being suffered by the army of the German Crown Prince, while the losses of men to the Allied forces are described as relatively light. Although unofficial reports have mentioned the rushing up of reinforcements from the south, there has as yet been no official statement that Gen. Foch is sending in his reserves.

In Flanders and Picardy the Germans are heavily bombarding French and British positions on various sectors, and raiding operations are being carried out by both sides. No big battle has been won.

HUNS BOMB HOSPITAL.

German Airmen Deliberately Drop Missiles on American and French Wounded.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE FRENCH FRONT, May 29.—German airmen last night deliberately dropped bombs on hospitals in which there were scores of American and hundreds of French sick and wounded. The hospital is in a town many miles in the rear of the front.

A number of Americans were slightly injured by flying glass. One French nurse was killed and another injured, probably fatally. Several civilians died of wounds.

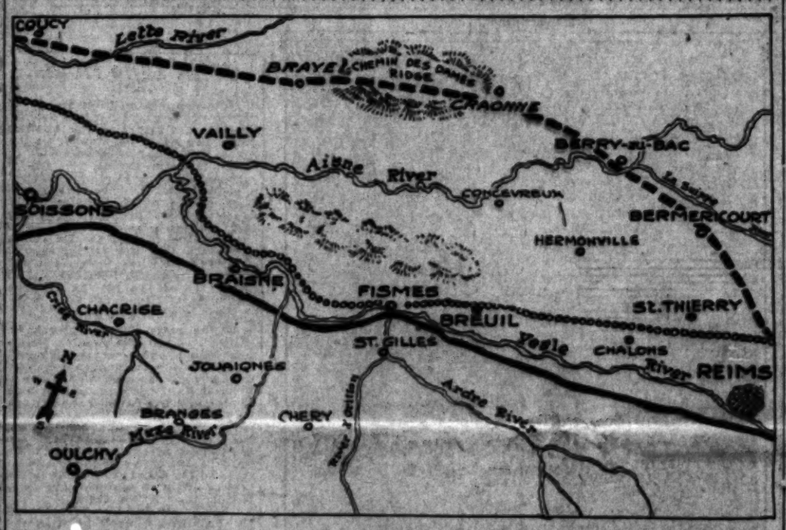
METAL FORKS IN GRAIN FOR HORSES LATEST SIGN OF GERMAN EFFICIENCY.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS,
The Times' Own War Correspondent in France.
[SPECIAL CABLE.]

PARIS, May 28.—A fine example of petty German ruthlessness was uncovered here today when wagonloads of grain for army horses passed along Rue de Rivoli. Thousands of small metal forks, half an inch long, concealed in the grain, were sifted through cracks of the wagon by shaking over the cobblestones. Punctured taxicab tires caused an examination of the street and discovery of the death-dealing instruments followed. Plotting painful death for animals seems to be a fine trick for the ruler of a great nation.

Hundreds of people gathered this evening in Rue de Rivoli and picked up the forks to be retained as souvenirs.

It may be mentioned here that other grain coming to France from America has been found to contain fish hooks. How about some force back there?



Dotted line on map shows German position at start of present offensive. Circle line shows position Monday afternoon. Heavy line shows Allied position yesterday. It will be seen that the German advance is blocked in the center and is overflowing on the sides. The present Allied line is about ten miles north of the River Marne.

Aerial Warfare.

THREE HUNDRED GERMANS ARE AIR RAIDERS' VICTIMS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON (via Ottawa) May 29.—The British are carrying out continuous air raids, by day and night at different points behind the German lines, where there are dense concentrations of troops. A German prisoner says that in the recent raid on Douai, 300 soldiers were killed or wounded and a great amount of damage was done.

GRANT PRELATE'S PLEA.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, May 29.—The British government has consented, on religious and humane grounds, that so far as it is concerned there shall be no air raids on cities not in the vicinity of the battle front during the day time tomorrow, the day of the feast of Corpus Christi.

This decision followed the receipt through the Vatican of the request recently made by the archbishop of Cologne, Cardinal von Hartmann, that in view of the serious damage done lately by British aid raids in that city there should be no bombing there during the time of the Corpus Christi procession.

G.O.P. SAYS WIN WAR BY VICTORY

Indiana Convention is Against Any Compromising with Germany.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29.—"Win the war by victory and not by compromise bargaining," was the keynote of the convention of the Indiana Republicans which nominated a State ticket and adopted a platform for the November election here today.

The delegates and spectators at times wildly applauded the patriotic sentiments expressed by the speakers and in the platform, which was submitted to the convention by Will H. Hays, chairman of the Republican National Committee, a fact which gave to the platform an added significance as an indication of the national policy of the Republican party.

THREE HURT AS AUTO HITS GARBAGE WAGON.

SHIPYARD WORKER MAY DIE AS RESULT OF THE COLLISION.

One man probably was fatally injured and two others escaped similar injuries last night when an automobile collided with a garbage wagon at Seventeenth and Figueroa streets.

William Brissler, 20 years old, of No. 5102 Latham street, a shipyard employee, is the seriously injured man. He was riding in the automobile driven by Horace Leonard of No. 7505 Walnut drive, an electrical inspector for the Pacific Electric Railway, when the accident took place. Leonard also was accompanied by a brother, D. M. Leonard of the same address.

Brissler was rushed to the Receiving Hospital by Officers Ousley and Julius, where a trephining operation was performed by Police Surgeon Zorb. It is doubtful if the shipworker will live. The Leonards escaped with minor cuts and bruises. The accident happened when the garbage wagon turned into the path of the automobile, the latter striking the rear end of the wagon. Brissler was thrown forward, his forehead striking the cowl of the automobile, crushing his skull.

The garbage wagon driver was uninjured and disappeared immediately after the occurrence.

BUENOS AIRES, Tuesday, May 28.—Luis Cabrera, head of the Mexican mission to South America, paid a visit to President Irigoyen today. The visit, it was said, was in connecton with the reported rupture between Mexico and Cuba.

No details of the conference were obtainable.

ANGLO-FRENCH JOINT HOLDS DESPIT BLOW.

GERMANS' MAIN PURPOSE BELIEVED FOILED; PARIS WELL PROTECTED.

BY RAE D. HENKLE.
[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PARIS, May 28.—What is the enemy trying to do in his march across the Aisne? What is his objective and what are the strategic reasons that prompted him to shift the direction of his attack from west to south? These are the first questions that come to mind at the news of developments on the western front.

The latest phase—the fourth in number—of the Germans' spring campaign has been in progress two days. It has resulted thus far in gains of ground, varying from four, perhaps eight or nine, miles on a front of a little more than twenty miles. It has already one tactical success to its credit in that it has once more placed the formidable Against Governor?

THINK NEW BOMB PLOT OF I.W.W. DISCOVERED.

WHAT is believed to be a new I.W.W. plot against the life of Gov. Stephens and the destruction of the executive mansion at Sacramento was disclosed with the arrest of Paul Sokal at Second and Main streets by Detectives Oaks and Toomey yesterday morning.

Sokal was first observed acting suspiciously by the conductor of a Central-avenue car. The conductor telephoned Central Station and detectives arrested the man. When searched at the station he was found to have concealed on him a long piece of gas pipe, presumably to be used as a weapon.

Immediately after his arrest the police officers started to question him and he willingly related the alleged plans of himself and two other members of the I.W.W. to dynamite Gov. Stephens's mansion.

According to his story, his immediate associates in the bomb plot were two men, whose names he knew only as Robert Burke of Cincinnati and "St. Louis Slim." Burke, the prisoner declares, is a walking delegate for the I.W.W.

He told his police that a cache of high explosives had been placed near Paso Robles and that the three men, acting under directions of men higher up in the organization, intended several days ago to journey to Sacramento to do the dynamiting job. He says the men met at the explosive cache and then decided the time was not quite ripe yet. They were to meet in the city during the next ten days and perfect their plans for the dynamiting.

The prisoner admitted that he has been a prisoner in Joliet and Folsom penitentiaries, having been just recently discharged from the latter. He served terms in both prisons on charges of burglary.

YANKEE PLUCK REPELS HORDES OF HUN TROOPS

WITH THE BRITISH ARMY IN FRANCE, May 29.—Further enemy counter attacks against the American troops who today stormed their way into Cantigny have been repulsed, the latest reports, the overseas men were holding their position in the shell-torn village strongly.

WITH THE AMERICAN FORCES ON THE FRENCH FRONT, May 29.—Three counter attacks made by the Germans to retake the terrain which they lost in Picardy Monday completely broke down in the face of the American artillery fire and the dash of our infantrymen. All the ground won by the Americans on Monday remains in their possession.

ENEMY LAUNCHES HEAVY GAS ATTACK.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 28.—The enemy launched another heavy gas attack against our troops in the Luneville sector early this morning and attempted to reach our line in three places. They were repulsed with comparatively heavy losses.

The first attack, made two kilometers southwest of Fremenil, broke down under the fierce machine-gun fire from the American trenches, the enemy retreating. Both the Americans and Germans fought in gas masks.

Soon afterwards the enemy put down a heavy barrage a kilometer in front and fourteen Germans managed to penetrate a trench in which Americans on Monday were subjected to a gas attack and who were gassed.

The Americans emerged from their dugouts and hand-to-hand fighting which was bloody for the Germans ensued, the Americans going for the enemy with knives and bayonets.

The Germans had been ordered to take prisoners at any cost, but failed to get any.

The American losses were insignificant. The enemy lost all the fourteen who penetrated the American position—nine having been killed, having died of wounds and four have been made prisoner.

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, May 28.—(By the Associated Press.)—Many of the American soldiers who took part in the successful attack against German lines west of Montdidier on Monday participated in the repulse of the German raid against American lines Monday.

One participant in Monday's affair, who by boss has been found in a shellhole in No Man's Land with two wounded Germans as prisoners. He was unable to get to the American lines Monday night, so he stood guard over the Germans. This morning, after the attack, they surrendered him and secured the prisoners to the Americans.

Private Irving W. Wood of Oakland, Cal., said he did not see one German fall during today's attack. "It was more exciting than a football game," he said. "We have been on the run. All we have seen Americans and then more Americans and then Germans fleeing before them."

AMERICANS DIG IN.

The American line now runs 180 yards east of Cantigny as the result of the successful attack today. The nearest German trench is several hundred yards east of the village. The Americans have dug in, and Germans it has been found, had machine-gun outposts and machine gun nests in Cantigny.

The enemy's first offensive blow was a hard one. The French tanks apparently did not have much to do with the American artillery although it had prepared the way. A few came out and shone on the Americans as they dug in their positions.

As the Americans started out across No Man's Land there were many jokes about "eating Boche for breakfast." The Americans fought as though they were veterans and there was no hesitation when the officers sprang forward and shouted:

WONDERFUL MORALE.

"Come on, boys!"

Several officers, describing the scene, agreed that the outstanding feature in their minds was the wonderful morale of the men and their absolute confidence in themselves. The Germans poured machine gun bullets all around—the Americans as they were digging in, but no attention was paid to them as jokes and quips were handed back and forth.

The demeanor of the men wounded in action was found similarly cheerful when the correspondent visited the field hospitals this afternoon. He saw stretched out on their cots a number of these Americans, for the most part only slightly wounded, who acted like schoolboys returned from a great day of sport, smoking cigarettes, eagerly relating their personal experiences and laughing loudly at the numerous incidents.

LIKE A MANEUVER.

Lieut. George E. Butler, formerly an attorney in Indianapolis, who was slightly wounded in the leg, said that going over the top was like a maneuver in the training camp back home. The men were eager for it, he said, and some of them remained up in the trenches all night talking about the approaching adventure with cheerful anticipations.

"When we reached Cantigny," he added, "it was only a pile of bricks

FRENCH RESERVE RUSHED INTO FIGHTING ON VESLE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, May 29 (8:09 a.m.)—Gen. Foch now has the situation well in hand and French troops are beginning to gain on the German advanced forces in a contest of speed.

No important line of communication is yet threatened by the advance of the German Crown Prince.

Those on the scene declare it is not too much to say that another forty-eight hours will see the German drive definitely stopped.

High praise is given the French reserves for the perfect order in which they are coming into the fighting line.

PARIS, May 29 (9:26 a.m.)—The French troops have fallen back to the eastern outskirts of Soissons, where the battle continues with bitterness, the French War Office announced this afternoon.

PARIS, May 29 (9:28 a.m.)—Franco-British troops have fallen back to the heights south and southeast of St. Thierry, where they are holding positions between the Vesle and the Aisne Canal.

PARIS, May 29 (9:43 a.m.)—In the center, continues the War Office announcement, fighting is going on with varying success on the heights on the southern bank of the Vesle River, where the French troops are bravely and admirably defending their positions.

MORE THAN 1200 SHELLS FALL UPON SOISSONS.

PARIS, May 29, 1:19 p.m.—Soissons, which the Germans began to bombard heavily Monday, has been evacuated by the civilian population under the advice of the military authorities, the correspondent of the Intransigeant reports.

More than 1200 shells fell on Soissons Monday, the correspondent's message says, and patients in the hospitals there were hastily removed by American light cars to places of safety, the evacuation beginning as soon as the shelling started.

At the latest report up to mid-day of yesterday the bombardment was still continuing.

ALLIES GIVE WAY BEFORE ENEMY MASSES.

WITH THE FRENCH ARMY IN FRANCE, Tuesday, May 28 (night.)—The German offensive made only slight progress today. Seeing the heavy masses opposed to them, the Allies gave way in the center and in some places the enemy crossed both the Aisne and the Vesle.

In the vicinity of Fismes, on the south bank of the Vesle River, there was heavy fighting, in which a British cycling battalion distinguished itself before retiring in the face of overwhelming pressure.

The fighting of the first few days, although all one-sided, has been indecisive, as the Entente Allied reserves still have to play their role. The task of the Allies in meeting such a brusque attack was most difficult. Now they are able to act with decision.

LONDON, May 29.—The German artillery is active north of Albert and in the Flanders salient, east of Robecq, the War Office announces. The enemy's fire increased locally east of Arras and south of Lens.

HEROISM WINS CROSS FOR FIVE AMERICANS.

THREE IN MARINE CORPS, TWO INFANTRYMEN, RENDER CONSPICUOUS SERVICE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 29.—Three men attached to the American Marine Corps and two American infantrymen have been awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous heroism in action. Two of the crosses will be delivered to the next of kin because the men upon whom they were conferred lost their lives.

Pharmacist Fred C. Shaffner, U.S.N., serving with the marines during an engagement on the west side of the St. Mihiel salient, southeast of Verdun, died as a result of his heroism. The cross was awarded him for "the highly commendable action he displayed in the care and attention incident to the removal of more than 100 casualties, following a gas shell bombardment, April 13," says the citation, which adds:

"He went beyond the call of duty in his efforts for the comfort and welfare of the sick, disregarding his own premonitory symptoms, insisting that he was all right, when the contrary was evident. He had to be relieved against his will and as a result of the gassing died."

The citation and award to Hospital Apprentice Carl O. Kingsbury, U.S.N., are presented for work identical to that done by Shaffner. Kingsbury, however, did not lose his life.

Corp. Walcott Winchenbaugh of the marines, was awarded the cross for having "on April 22, with exceptional coolness and devotion to duty while under fire near the enemy lines, rescued his severely-wounded leader, Second Lieutenant A. L. Sundval, from the hands of the enemy."

The citation of Private Charles Schmitz of the infantry says:

"During an attack, April 14, by his company against superior enemy forces, he advanced single-handed against five Germans who had taken cover in a shell hole and killed or wounded all of them with his automatic rifle."

Private Frank Alekno of the infantry on April 21, says the citation, while a member of a patrol of three men, attacked an enemy patrol of seven men.

"Although mortally wounded," the citation adds, "he continued in action until the enemy was driven off. He then carried a message for assistance 200 yards from the place where he was wounded."

Not long afterwards Alekno died from his wounds.

Bench warrants were issued for the arrest of Dr. and Mrs. Nash and the District Attorney said that $1000 bail would be demanded for each. The indictments were returned under section six of the food control law.

This is the first indictment for individual hoarding, it was said at the Food Administration today, that has been brought since the food control law was enacted.

HARDWARE MEN TOLD TO ENTER WAR WORK.

ATLANTIC CITY, May 29.—The hardware industry of the nation was today warned to "turn over your business as far as you can to war work," by Pierpont B. Noyes, chief of the conservation division of the National Fuel Administration, in an address to hardware men in national convention here.

"The industrial coal shortage was sad last winter; it is going to be worse this winter. We can't 'fix it,' as some are demanding, for the problem is too great. A hundred thousand more coal cars and 3600 more locomotives will not make a dent in the shortage," Mr. Noyes declared.

LATINS WIN FORTY-HOUR BATTLE IN TONALE AREA.

ITALIAN ARMY HEADQUARTERS, Tuesday, May 28.—One of the most brilliant mountain operations since the beginning of the war was carried out by the Italians in the Tonale region, northwest of Trent, early this week. The basin of Presena Lake was captured by Italian Alpini after forty hours of fierce fighting.

The Austrians were well entrenched. The great Presena Mountain was reached by the Alpini after attacking four times under a heavy fire. The enemy was finally overwhelmed by a bayonet drive.

The fight was rendered more difficult by the condition of the ground which was hard and slippery with late spring snows. The Italians advanced up steep ascents, down precipices and over glaciers.

BATTLE AMONG CLOUDS.

ROME, Monday, May 27.—The brilliant victory of the Italians in the Tonale region was won in fighting on ground about 12,000 feet above the sea, amid melting snows and everlasting glaciers. The battle was remarkable on account of the highly-specialized troops engaged and the mechanical devices applied.

The vast wastes of Tonale Mountain, dominating the Camonica Plateau and the approaches to Paradise Pass, had been neglected by both sides as a field for offensive operations, but now becomes more important.

Among the results of the Italian attack were the blowing up by artillery fire of an important Austrian munitions depot and the capture of two telegraph lines, which ran through Paradise Pass. The Italians were assisted greatly by a violent fire. It required heroic efforts by the Alpini to carry the guns to the mountaintops.

Joint Line Holds.

Chemins des Dames barrier in their hands and secured the valley of the Aisne from the neighborhood of Conde to Berry-au-Bac.

The operations have not reached a stage, however, where the enemy purpose is exposed. The army of the Crown Prince has crossed the Chemins des Dames, rolled down through the ravines to the south, debouched into the valley, crossed the river by some means not yet clear and seems to have reached at least part of the plateau between the Aisne and the Vesle.

STRIKES NEAR RHEIMS.

At the same time he struck on the part of the line running southeast from the river around Rheims, pushed in the right of a group of British divisions sandwiched on a twelve-mile front between French armies, and has reached the plateau from the east. So far as we can tell from the meager reports from the battle, perfect liaison has been maintained by the British with the French. On each side the line is intact and the Allies are retiring in the best of order on a supporting force stationed along the Vesle.

The German has hit again at what he considered a weak point in the Allied front—the point of Anglo-French junction. This time the joint held. There is a disposition in some authoritative quarters to accept the theory that the strategical aim of the thrust is Paris, to be reached by overrunning the entire Soissons and driving southwest through Villers-Cotterets on the main road from Soissons to Paris. Two big and important considerations, however, oppose that theory. First, practically the whole of the Allied reserve concentrations may be said to be in the triangle, Amiens-Paris-Chalon, with the best network of transportation lines in France ready for immediate use and with unlimited space for maneuver back of it and, second, the enemy does not want Paris, even now, if he has to leave an active fighting force on his front or on his flanks. Territory, except for some slight moral effect at home, is valueless to him. He is not going to win the war by grabbing land and the directors of his military machine know it. Paris would be a millstone around his neck so long as there is a British, a French or an American army in the field.

BARRED FROM SEA.

No further progress can be made toward Amiens and the sea until the Montdidier salient is widened and the danger of converging flank attacks is removed. Only by a drive to the sea can the Allied armies be separated and the German dream of another Sedan be made real. All of France lies to the south, only the sea to the west. And between the fighting front and the sea is a stretch of less than fifty miles. If the enemy could reach it at Abbeville practically the whole of the British expeditionary force would be caught and immobilized or compelled to evacuate that corner of France, leaving behind every port on the English Channel.

That is the high stake the German command must play for and it seems logical to suppose that the battle on the Aisne is an effort on a tremendous scale to flank the Laigue Forest and plateau, force a retirement from the Lassigny-Montdidier line and open room for another stupendous blow in Picardy.

Allied leaders are questioning whether the main offensive of the Hun is to continue in the direction of Paris, or whether the present fighting, which lost the Chemin des Dames for the Allies, was not a covering action for the big blow which will land at Amiens with the intention of reaching the channel ports.

Latest reports stated that Gen. Foch had the situation well in hand, and that the German push will be stopped within forty-eight hours at the latest. French reserves are appearing on the battle field on the Vesle front in greater numbers.

The American troops proved their metal by making the only advance scored by Allied troops. They took Cantigny and held it against all counter-attacks. Three attacks were repulsed, according to Pershing's report.

The center of the German drive at Fismes has apparently been stopped, but the flanks still are pushing forward.

Liberal Press Outlines Teuton Proposals.

Blunders of Previous Plans are Exposed.

BY HERMAN BERNSTEIN.

[ATLANTIC CABLE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

CHRISTIANIA (via London), May 29.—Simultaneously with a drive on the western front Germany is organizing a new peace offensive. This time the drive comes from the extreme Conservative and the extreme Liberal organs.

Indicating the blunders of previous German peace drives, one outlined how the new peace drive should be made. The Berlin Zeitung writes in part:

"Previous peace offensives were doomed to failure because they were the work of a half-hearted party against the enemies' war cry that the Allies' clear lines of war left nothing no room for discussion. Such opinions were missing in the German governmental statements, as in the Reichstag majority resolution. The Allies were given to discredit and discuss German peace offers because the half-heartedness created misgivings.

"In this respect we [illegible] initiative to the Allies. We deserted the German peace offensive of December 12, 1916. We believe a peace offensive, using the mentality of the nations for consideration and presenting definite aims, should be a permanent task of German foreign policy.

ADVERTISERS' PREFERENCE FOR THE TIMES IS DEMONSTRATED.

In a series of tabulated figures The Times each week presents to its readers a short object lesson in advertising values which accurately indicates the preference of local advertisers.

Every week in the year The Times, as a matter of course, is far and away ahead of all the other local newspapers in the volume of paid advertising announcements.

On Sunday, May 26, 1918, the total volume of advertising printed in local newspapers aggregated 16,992 inches, divided as follows:

THE TIMES	9,363 inches
Second newspaper	6,136 "
Third newspaper	1,494 "

The foregoing authentic figures indicate that The Times, as usual, printed approximately twice as much advertising as the two other local newspapers combined.

CLASSIFIED ADVERTISING

An analysis of the "want-ad" sections of the local newspapers for last Sunday again demonstrates the overwhelming popularity of The Times as regards that far-reaching and inexpensive form of publicity. The following is the local "want-ad" record for Sunday, May 26:

Second newspaper	1,591 "
Third newspaper	576 "

In printing 1562 inches more "want ads" than the second newspaper, and 2577 inches more than the third newspaper, and approximately 1000 inches more than the second and third newspapers combined on the date mentioned, The Times followed its usual custom.

The Times' every-day-in-the-year advertising supremacy is due to the fact that local advertisers have learned by experience that by using The Times alone they can cover Los Angeles and Southern California at one cost.

Pershing's Men Score Heavily in First Drive Against the Germans.

Pershing's Communique.

GERMAN COUNTER-ATTACKS REPULSED BY AMERICANS

Three Attempts to Regain Lines Taken by Our Men Fail.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Consolidation of positions taken yesterday by the Americans in the Cantigny salient, and the repulse of renewed counter-attacks, is announced in Gen. Pershing's evening communique issued tonight by the War Department. It also tells of the results last night of three raids in Lorraine, in which several prisoners were taken and a number of the enemy were killed.

The dispatch follows:

"In the Cantigny salient we have consolidated our positions in spite of heavy artillery and machine-gun fire. Renewed counter-attacks broke down under our fire.

"In Lorraine we repulsed three raids during the night, taking several prisoners, killing a number of the enemy. There and in the Woevre artillery of both sides has been continuously active.

"It is established that on May 27 five aviators shot down two hostile machines instead of one, as reported.

OUR MEN WIN.

"Reports of successful operations by American soldiers are coming to the War Department, Secretary Baker said today. Details of the actions are expected in the regular official communiques from Gen. Pershing."

The Secretary made this statement when asked to comment on the situation in Europe.

"I cannot comment on the general situation," he said. "We are constantly receiving reports of gallant valor and successful operations by our American soldiers. I am very proud of the part they are playing. The details of these actions will appear in the official communiques from Gen. Pershing." He apparently this is the most intensive and furious battle of the war," Mr. Baker, after reading later dispatches. "We shall have to await developments before we can have adequate idea of the effect of the battle on the general situation. Nevertheless it must fill the American people with pride to realize that the conduct of our soldiers at the front has won the comment 'magnificent' from their French Allies."

OFFICIALS PLEASED.

War Department officials are well pleased with the conduct of the American troops in their first drives against the Germans in force. The attack that brought the capture of Cantigny, they pointed out today, was delivered with speed and precision, testifying to the hard-hitting quality of the troops.

The quick consolidation of the ground won, noted by both foreign and American correspondents, officers say, gives satisfactory proof of the aptitude of American officers and men in learning the methods of modern warfare.

Some officers believe the American attack may forecast the launching of a counter-offensive of large scope by Gen. Foch. They regard the time and place of the operations as right for a feeling-out thrust as a preliminary to a counter assault in force.

PATROLS REPULSED.

An addition to Gen. Pershing's communique for yesterday, given out by the War Department today, reports that two German patrol attacks on May 26 and 27 were repulsed by American troops.

Lieuts. Rickenbacher and Campbell, American airmen, downed one enemy machine while fighting six.

Gen. Pershing cited an American sergeant, who, although wounded, drove off an enemy patrol of four men. The communique follows:

"Section B: Yesterday morning three of our planes encountered four hostile planes flying at 3000 meters in the region of Montsec. In the fighting, which ensued, Lieut. Douglas Campbell successfully attacked two of the German machines. Of these, one lost both wings and fell. This was referred to in yesterday's communique. In the same encounter one of our aviators was wounded, but succeeded in making a normal landing within our lines.

ONE WHIPS FOUR.

"Yesterday morning in a sector recently taken over by our troops an American sergeant encountered a German patrol of four men who had entered one of our trenches during the night. In fighting which ensued our sergeant, although receiving three wounds, succeeded in driving out the hostile patrol, which left grenades and wire cutters behind.

"In Lorraine, on the evening of May 26, a hostile patrol attempted to penetrate our lines. It was driven off with loss to the enemy of five killed. Of these, one was brought into our lines. One of our men was wounded.

"This morning, Lieut. Rickenbacher and Lieut. Campbell attacked a group of six enemy planes and brought one down out of control."

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 29. — German prisoners taken by the Americans say that most of the men opposed to the Americans returned from the Russian front. Their men want them to keep the Americans constantly harassed and to cause the impression that a great German force is near at hand. One German deserter yesterday said many others want to desert, as they are tired of war.

As a result of the powerful attack launched against the Americans yesterday in the Luneville sector and later, when patrols clashed in this sector, was five dead Germans and no deaths of Americans.

The Lorraine sector gas attack is a drought to the belief that the war will develop even more ruthlessness, due to the Germans' grim determination to fight with the deadliest gases. Here the German put off 500 large phosgine shells from projections recently implanted in the sector in order to give the Americans a taste of what the Canadians got at Ypres.

It is known the Germans are employing electrically-connected batteries, connected so as to fire simultaneously large gas shells which contain each more than three gallons.

CHICAGO, May 29.—Acting Chief of Police Alcock declared following a conference with the State Council of Defense, that German agents are sending women into various cities, cantonments and barracks to undermine the morale and health of American soldiers in training and men about to be drafted.

THROTTLE THE PRESS BILL UP IN ARIZONA.

LEGISLATOR OBJECTS TO CRITICISM; CAPITAL PUNISHMENT UP TO PEOPLE.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

PHOENIX, May 29.—Capital punishment has been killed in the Senate by its friends, and will be taken by petition to the people at the fall election. There was a decision that initiation by the Legislature might have legal flaws, though the Attorney-General intimated that a resolution at this special session might have place outside of the limitations of the Governor's call.

Early adjournment prevented a fight in the House over the salary and court costs bill of Thomas Campbell in the Governor's office. Several radical Democrats have been busy trying to block even the payment of salary, though asked for by Gov. Hunt. It now seems evident that it will lack enough votes to get it out with an emergency clause.

Also left at the post for the time was a new council of defense bill, offered by Representative Pauline O'Neill, and said to have the approval of Gov. Hunt and the Executive Committee of the present council. It leaves the constitution of the council in the hands of the Governor, though he is left only as an ex-officio member. A new composite bill will be reported in the Senate.

Representative Eddy will ask emergency consideration of a bill that will empower either house to punish for contempt the authors of a false and malicious report of legislative proceedings, or of the legislative conduct of any member. The author, in the bill, states that false and malicious publications have appeared in certain Arizona newspapers.

Senator Campbell has a memorial asking Congress to appropriate $300,000 for a bridge across the Colorado River at Lees Ferry.

PRAGER'S LAST PLEA WAS TO KISS FLAG.

WITNESS AT TRIAD OF ALLEGED LYNCHERS DESCRIBES HANGING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

EDWARDSVILLE, May 29.—Robert Paul Prager, who was lynched because of alleged disloyalty by a mob at Collinsville, Ill., on the morning of April 5, made a request that he be permitted to kiss the American flag, which was granted, according to testimony given at the trial of eleven men for murder today, by Albert Kneedler, a recruit from Jefferson Barracks, who appeared in the court in uniform.

Kneedler declared that Prager's request came after he had been permitted to pray and to write a farewell note and that a flag was handed to him by Wesley Beaver, one of the defendants.

"He kissed it and then they hanged him," said the witness.

All the defendants have been identified by witnesses as members of the mob.

Attorneys for the defense attempted to assail the testimony of several witnesses by questioning their loyalty.

Court adjourned this afternoon until Friday.

DISCOURAGED SERVICE IN ARMY; CONVICTED.

SEATTLE, May 29.—Emil Herman of Everett, State Secretary for the Socialist party, was found guilty of having violated the Espionage Act. Two other counts in the indictment against him, charging mutinous conduct, were quashed by Judge Jeremiah Neterer, who heard the case.

and stones. Our artillery had leveled the town. The German machine gun bullets were buzzing about like bumble bees, but our fellows didn't pay any more attention to them than if they had been confetti.

"It was the finest example of teamwork I ever saw. There was not a hitch anywhere. The men cracked jokes and sang, but they were business-like in their work."

WAS A GREAT SHOW.

Lieut. Albert E. Billings of Brooklyn, N. Y., who also was slightly wounded, was brought to the hospital and placed on a cot adjoining that of Lieut. Butler. As soon as their eyes met they clasped hands and greeted each other like long-lost brothers.

"It was a great show, wasn't it?" Billings said. "Gee, I wish the folks at home could have seen it. I wouldn't have missed it for the world."

The Americans penetrated the German positions to a depth of nearly a mile. Their artillery completely smothered the Germans. The roar of the American guns could be heard for many miles in the rear. Several fires are burning behind the German line.

Twelve French tanks supported the American infantry.

The German prisoners include men from a Bavarian and a Silesian regiment, some of them as young as 17 or 18, and others between 45 and 50. All are poorly clothed and appeared to be underfed.

The Germans trooped out of their dugouts when they saw the futility of resistance, their hands held up, shouting "Kamerad." Apparently they were glad to surrender. One of them said he did not want to fight but had been compelled to do so.

ALL ACCOUNTED FOR.

The garrison at Cantigny was all accounted for. The men either surrendered or were killed. Many German dead were strewn over the ground.

The old German lines formed an angle which has now been straightened out. The Americans have obtained high ground commanding a section of plateau-like country.

American aerial observers assisted the French in directing the artillery fire.

The artillery preparation began at 5:45 o'clock, one hour before the infantry went over the top. The lines of Americans moved forward in perfect order, the tanks in the lead. The American artillery did magnificent work.

HAND-TO-HAND FIGHTING.

Fierce hand-to-hand fighting occurred in Cantigny, which contained a large tunnel and a number of caves. The tunnel sheltered 100 Germans. The Americans hurled hand grenades like baseballs into these shelters.

An officer told the correspondent that the Americans went forward smilingly but that at the same time their faces reflected the traditional American grit and determination.

A strong unit of flame throwers and engineers aided the Americans. All the tanks returned safely. At 8:25 o'clock the Germans began a bombardment, dropping two shells per minute, most of them falling in a ravine south of Cantigny. Compared with this the American guns fired six, four or two shots per minute. The American barrage moved forward one hundred yards in two minutes and then one hundred yards in four minutes. The infantry followed with clock-like precision.

AVIATORS LOCATE FOE.

After the French aviators had located the approximate positions of the German gas projectors which deluged the American Luneville front with 1000 shells on Sunday and early Monday, the American artillery laid a heavy fire of high explosives throughout last night, covering the area with hundreds of shells, and making it virtually certain that the projectors were destroyed.

There has been increased activity and also increased patrol activity on all the sectors held by the Americans, since the resumption of the German offensive.

Shortly before the American attack today, the Germans again attempted to shell American hospitals, behind the American lines. Two high explosive shells fell 100 yards from one hospital. All patients able to walk or to be moved, sought safety in shelter trenches.

REUTER'S ADVICES.

LONDON, May 29.—German troops who counter-attacked last night against the Americans who captured Cantigny, west of Montdidier, were repulsed with heavy losses, reports Reuter's correspondent at the British army headquarters in France today.

The enemy counter-attack on the new American positions was met by the Allied gunners with a hurricane of fire. Waves of German infantrymen were stopped dead and thrown back, leaving large numbers of killed or wounded on the ground.

CAUGHT IN INTENSE FIRE.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMY IN FRANCE, May 29.—The Germans delivered their first counter-thrust against the Americans late yesterday in an effort to regain the defenses which had been wrested from them in the morning along a two-kilometer front.

The enemy drive was preceded by a heavy bombardment, which began at 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

After thirty minutes of artillery preparation the Germans advanced, but were caught in an intense fire from the American guns and were apparently forced to retire without having come into close contact with the American infantry.

Since then the enemy has made additional attempts to drive the Americans from the village, but without avail.

BRITISH TRANSPORT SUNK BY SUBMARINE.

THIRTEEN OFFICERS, SEVENTY-NINE SOLDIERS VICTIMS IN MEDITERRANEAN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, May 29.—The transport ship Leasowe Castle has been sunk by an enemy submarine, the British Admiralty announced tonight. One hundred and one persons were drowned.

The Leasowe Castle, which was of 9727 tons gross, was sunk in the Mediterranean on May 26. Among those who lost their lives were thirteen military officers and seventy-nine soldiers of other rank.

The Leasowe Castle was built in 1917 at Birkenhead and was owned by the Union Castle Mail Steamship Company of London.

The text of the British Admiralty statement reads:

"The transport Leasowe Castle was torpedoed and sunk by an enemy submarine May 26 in the Mediterranean.

"Thirteen military officers and seventy-nine of other rank, and of the ship's company, the captain, two wireless operators and six of other ratings, are missing. It is presumed all were drowned."

PARIS BLASTED WITH BIGGER GIANT GUNS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, May 29.—Examination of the shells discharged by the Germans in the long-range bombardment of Paris indicates that new guns are being used. Larger shells are being employed than formerly, the caliber of the guns being 24 centimeters (9½ inches) instead of 21, but the force of the explosion does not seem to have increased.

FOE'S EXTENDED LINE BOOSTS FOOD LOSSES.

BERLIN PRESS TONES DOWN WAR ENTHUSIASM UNDER ARMY ORDERS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, May 29 (via Ottawa.)—German newspapers already are applauding the advance of the Crown Prince's army on the Aisne front as a drastic victory for the Hohenzollerns, but the correspondents show that he has gained no stronger a line than that which he already held.

At the same time the enemy by extending the battle line has seriously dispersed his forces, all of which must be fed with a ration less constantly higher than that of the defenders. The active front is now 190 miles long.

Observers are agreed that the losses of the Allies are comparatively small. Their retirement was deliberate and was carried out in good order.

GERMAN COMMENT.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, May 29.—Berlin newspapers apparently have been given orders to tone down their war enthusiasm, says the Amsterdam correspondent of the Daily Express, reporting on German comment on Monday's fighting along the Aisne.

The Cologne Volks Zeitung says of the fighting:

"Our new success shows us again how justified is our confidence in our great leaders. It would be premature to draw final conclusion, but it is enough for the German people to know that its confidence in the spirit of the troops can never be disappointed."

Several of the morning newspapers withhold comment on the battle on the Aisne sector. Others, while admitting the Germans have gained a substantial initial success, deprecate any idea of treating the new advance too seriously. It is recalled that similar thrusts have not been followed by continuous success.

ALLIES SURPRISED.

COPENHAGEN, May 29.—Military critics in the Berlin press admit they were surprised by the choice of the Chemin des Dames for the new German offensive on the western front and they declare it is obvious the Allied commanders likewise were surprised.

The critics assert that exhausted English divisions recently were assigned to the Champagne positions obviously to permit them to have needed rest, and the commentators are jubilant over the assumption that the reserves of Gen. Foch are far away. The German newspapers give alleged statements of British and French prisoners admitting their surprise was complete.

GRIPPE EPIDEMIC, WAR RELIC, INVADES SPAIN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

MADRID, May 29.—The grippe-like epidemic continues to spread. There are 120,000 victims in Madrid. King Alfonso is still in bed with the malady, but his condition is not dangerous.

The population believe the disease was brought to Spain by German submarines, as there are cases among crews of interned underwater boats.

Some persons hold the opinion that it had been spread by microbes blown by the winds from the battle fronts.

EXPERTS WILL VIEW ALL RATE PROTESTS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Suggestions for modification of the new scale of freight and passenger rates have begun to reach the railroad administration. They are filed for later inspection by administration rate experts and the Interstate Commerce Commission.

Officials explained that many changes would be made, and that letters explaining apparent injustice would be welcomed.

Regional directors today made arrangements for the issuance of new commutation and other tickets June 10, when the higher passenger fares go into effect. Portions of old mileage and commutation books and unused tickets will be redeemed at the rate paid for them.

LABOR BOARD ADJUSTS CARPENTERS' DISPUTE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

CHICAGO, May 29.—The National War Labor Board concluded a two-day session here and adjourned to meet in New York next Saturday when it is expected several decisions will be announced in pending industrial disputes.

Before adjourning the board adjusted the dispute between the union carpenters and contractors of Detroit, both sides agreeing to a wage scale of 70 cents an hour.

Since its organization several weeks ago the board has had submitted to it thirty-five disputes between capital and labor, of which more than a dozen have been either adjusted or referred to other tribunals.

STATE INSTITUTIONS GLUTTONS ON WHEAT.

ONLY TWO HAVE KEPT WITHIN FOOD ALLOWANCE, SAYS BOARD OF CONTROL.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SACRAMENTO, May 29.—A tabulated report of the requisitions for supplies for State institutions for the quarter beginning July 1, next, shows that only two have kept within the Food Administration allowance of six pounds of wheat products per person per month, while some have requested as much as twenty-two pounds per capita, Marshal de Motte, chairman of the State Board of Control, announced today.

Steps will be taken immediately to hold persons in the State's employ and under the State's charge to the same limitations as all citizens of California, he said.

"In order that all may be put on a parity, it may be necessary to arbitrarily cut down requisitions of wheat products and increase the allotment of substitutes," Chairman De Motte said.

ASKS RAILROAD MEN TO STAY ON THE JOB.

M'ADOO WIRES MEN THREATENING STRIKE CLAIMS WILL BE CONSIDERED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Upon receiving word today that mechanics and shopmen of the Rock Island and other railroads were threatening a strike next Monday for higher wages than Director-General McAdoo's recent order authorized, the Railroad Administration asked the men by telegraph to remain at work and announced that the new board on railroad wages and working conditions would take up the machinists' application next week and give a decision as soon as possible.

The same word was sent to a number of other complaining labor organizations throughout the country. Officials said few men would leave their work pending further consideration of their claims by the wage board, which is expected to meet here Monday.

Most of the strongest protests have come from local organizations which did not understand that further modification of the wage scale might be made after investigation.

KAISER GIVES HEIR PART OF THE GLORY.

AMSTERDAM, May 29. — The Kaiser, who is on the field of battle south of Laon, on the Aisne front, has sent the following telegram to his consort at Potsdam:

"William (apparently Crown Prince Frederick William) has today attacked the British and French on the Chemin des Dames. The strongly consolidated height, after being subjected to mighty artillery fire, has been stormed by our glorious infantry. We have crossed the Aisne and are approaching the Vesle.

"Prin, with the first guards infantry division, was one of the first to reach the Aisne. (This is evidently another reference to the Crown Prince.) The Twenty-eighth Division also has again distinguished itself. The British and French were completely surprised. Our losses are small. Tomorrow we shall make further progress.

"God has granted us a splendid victory and will help further. Greetings."

Americanism.

WAR HELD DUTY BY ROOSEVELT.

No Place for Fifty-fifty Patriots, He Says.

Help Men at Front Colonel Urges in Milwaukee.

Favors Suppression of Alien Language Press.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

MILWAUKEE, May 29.—"We've got one grand duty, to put the war through—to a knockout," said Col. Roosevelt in speaking at a local theater under the auspices of the National Security League, on the subject of "Americanism" to several thousand persons this afternoon.

All the movements, he declared, must be directed to one purpose—helping the men at the front to win the war.

"If three years ago, our people had been awake as they are now, and had been prepared, there would have been no war by this time," said the colonel. "Our business is now to win, to profit by errors of the past so as not to permit them again.

"LET'S DO IT."

"We are getting the troops over there! Don't let's say what we are going to do, let's do it."

Three things must be remembered, he said—Americanism, the need of speeding up the war at this time, and the general principle of preparedness.

The war, he said, would settle that there is to be but one flag in this country and that will be neither the red nor the black.

Col. Roosevelt said America was no place for a fifty-fifty American. Either he must be all American or he isn't an American at all and his place is in some other land.

APPEAL TO MOTHERS.

He appealed to mothers born in Germany or of German parentage, whose children are growing up here, to rear them only as Americans. He declared there is only room in America for one language and that must be the language of the Declaration of Independence, Washington's farewell address and Lincoln's Gettysburg address.

He also favored the publication of news only in the English language.

Col. Roosevelt received a delegation of the Milwaukee Branch of the National Woman's Party at his hotel and told the women he was working to secure the passage of the National Suffrage Amendment.

Mr. Roosevelt left Milwaukee at 4 o'clock.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

The ward devoted to the mentally defective contained forty-five patients of whom thirty-four have been accounted for. A number of the patients are said to have run back into the burning building after having been taken out.

LIGHTEST VOTE EVER GETS SENATOR PLACE.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

SIOUX FALLS (S. D.) May 29.—A heavy rain kept voters away from the polls in the State primary election yesterday, and, with the absence of men in service, was responsible for the lightest vote ever cast in a South Dakota election.

United States Senator Thomas Sterling, according to returns tonight, scant because of crippled communications due to the storm, was 850 votes ahead of Frank M. Byrne for the Senatorial nomination.

PRICE ON ALUMINUM FIXED BY PRESIDENT.

PRODUCERS AGREE NOT TO REDUCE WAGES AND SELL TO ALL AT SAME PRICE.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—A maximum base price of 33 cents a pound for aluminum in lots of fifty tons or more, of the ingot 98 to 99 per cent. grade, was fixed by President Wilson today under an agreement between producers and the War Industries Board.

The new price is effective June 1 and will continue until September 1. Differentials for sheet, rod and wire will be increased by about 12½ per cent.; differentials for quantity and grade and differentials for alloy will remain as approved by the board on March 3, last.

Producers of aluminum agreed not to reduce present wages; to sell their output to the government, to the public, and to the Allies at the same maximum base price; to keep aluminum out of speculators' hands and to maintain production to assure an adequate supply for the duration of the war.

The prices are effective on deliveries made during June 1 to September 1 and on contracts made in the same period which specify that the price shall be that in force the time of delivery.

CHINA DOESN'T FAVOR JAPAN RAIL PURCHASE.

[BY PACIFIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PEKING, Friday, May 24.—The Chinese Ambassador at Tokio has been instructed to protest to the Japanese government against the transfer to Japan by Russia of a section of the Chinese Eastern Railway near the Sungari River.

An official announcement from Tokio received in Washington last November 3, said Japan and the Russian government, then under control of Premier Kerensky, had agreed to the purchase by Japan of a section of the Chinese Eastern Railway between Kwan Cheng Tse, near Chang Chun, in Manchuria, and the Sungari River.

MENACE TO RUSSIA.

MOSCOW, Wednesday, May 22.—Russia is fully aware of the dangers threatening her from German imperialism, says the Bolshevik organ Izvestia, in an article in which it asserts that no Allied help is desired of a nature which would result in Russia re-entering the European conflict. It adds, however:

"Let some power honestly help us combat successfully the threatening danger. Russia would appreciate in the highest degree any assistance toward the improvement of transportation and communication facilities and the cleansing of her economic life. . . . If the Allies really wish, rather than to drag Russia into the war for purely strategic reasons, to give her practical help in her tragic situation, let them discuss to the exclusion of every other subject her urgent need of economic aid."

GERMANS RULE FINNS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

STOCKHOLM, May 29.—The new Finnish Cabinet formed by former Senator Paaskivi indicates increased German influence in the Finnish government and has resulted in a further request by Gen. Mannerheim, commander of the Finnish troops, demanding that his resignation be accepted. The general is opposed to German intervention and the Germanization of the Finnish army.

Col. Vosteleff, the new War Minister, is working in close connection with German headquarters. It is believed that a number of Swedish officers now serving in the Finnish army will follow Mannerheim into retirement.

STATE WOOL GROWERS MUST CONSIGN CLIPS.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Regulations for handling the 1918 California and New Mexico wool clips were announced today by the War Industries Board. Rules were issued also for wool buying by mills in the country sections.

California producers will get the full government price less freight to the Atlantic seaboard and interest on any advance made up to the time the wool reaches its destination. Growers in States west of the Missouri River may not sell, but must consign their wool to an approved dealer in an approved distributing center.

In the country wool sections ordinary mills will buy from distributing centers and included in the price under these circumstances will be five and a half cents commissions plus freight to Atlantic seaboard.

MANGANESE ORE PRICE RAISE IS APPROVED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Prices for manganese ores produced in this country as agreed to by the American Iron and Steel Institute, have been approved by the War Industries Board and became effective after midnight last night.

The prices are based on shipments from the West f.o.b. at South Chicago and are slightly higher than those that have prevailed in past months. The prices range from 56 cents per unit of metallic manganese per ton for ore containing when dried at 212 deg. Fahrenheit from 35 to 35.99 per cent. of metallic manganese to $1.30 per unit for ore containing 54 per cent. or more of metallic manganese.

For ore shipped east of South Chicago, 15 per cent. per unit of metallic manganese per ton are added to the unit prices.

"BLUE DEVILS" SCARE AT WATER; FROGS! UGH!

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

GREAT LAKES (Ill.) May 29.—Forty of the 105 "Blue Devils" of France, who are on a tour of the United States, returned to Chicago today after a side trip to Waukegan, where they were entertained at dinner yesterday by E. R. Gobrecht of the Y.M.C.A. Recalling stories that the French drink little water and have wine at their meals, Mr. Gobrecht felt called upon to explain its absence from the table.

"Waukegan is what we call a dry town," he said. "We run mostly to water here and know nothing of wine. Our meals are washed down with water."

From Corp. Georges Lecoq came a protesting note in French. Mr. Gobrecht asked for a translation and a "blue devil" acquainted with the English tongue volunteered it.

"He says this," the interpreter said, "'Yes, I know, but that causes frogs in the stomach.'"

WAR OFFICE STATEMENTS

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, May 29.—The first War Office statement today follows:

"We carried out a successful raid last night southeast of Arras and captured prisoners and a machine gun. A raid attempted by the enemy at Givenchy-les-La Bassee was repulsed. A hostile attack upon one of our posts south of the Ypres-Comines Canal also was repulsed after sharp fighting.

"The hostile artillery has been active north of Albert in the neighborhood of Ayette, east of Robecq and northwest of Merville and has shown somewhat increased activity locally east of Arras and south of Lens."

"A hostile raiding party was driven back during the night in the neighborhood of Beaumont-Hamel," says a communication issued this evening.

"A local attack made by the enemy north of Kemmel was completely repulsed by the French troops.

"There is nothing further to report from the British front."

FRENCH.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, May 29.—The first War Office statement today follows:

"Last night the German advance, assisted by the arrival of fresh divisions, was more powerful, especially on both wings, in the directions of Soissons and Rheims.

"On the left French troops, fighting every foot of the way, fell back to the eastern outskirts of Soissons, where the battle continues with violence. On the right Franco-British troops, after an energetic defense of the Massif of St. Thierry, withdrew slowly to the heights to the south and southeast, where they are holding on between the Vesle River and the Aisne Canal.

"In the center the fighting is continuing with varying results on the southern bank of the Vesle, where our troops are defending the heights with admirable courage.

"West of Montdidier the Americans broke up two successive German attacks which were directed against Cantigny.

"Spirited artillery fighting continues on both banks of the Meuse. The French fire broke up a number of German raids in the sector of Embermenil, north of Bezonbaux, in the region of the Villers and near the Rhone-Rhine Canal."

ITALIAN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

ROME, May 29.—"At Caposile Monday night two hostile attacks were broken up in front of our new positions," says the official report from headquarters today. "In the Presena Valley we captured a patrol of thirteen. Our prisoners were taken in the Col Caprille area.

"Enemy detachments were repulsed at Mont Como and Mont Asolone."

The text of the official statement from the War Office tonight reads:

"The troops covering Rheims have withdrawn behind the Aisne Canal northwest of the town.

"The battle took on particular violence on our left wing. In the region of Soissons, after stubborn resistance and fighting in the streets, which held back the enemy for several hours, our troops evacuated the town, the western outskirts of which we occupy.

"Southeast of Soissons the battle extended to the plateau marked by Belleu, Septmonts, Abrief and Chaerins.

"In the center, under the pressure of the enemy, we gave ground in the region of Loupeigne, north of Fereen-Tardenois. The Franco-British troops further east maintained their positions on the line of Brouillet, Savigny and Tilloy."

GERMAN.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERLIN (via London) May 29.—The official communication issued today reads:

"On the battle fronts from the Yser to Oise increased fighting activity continued. French local attacks south of Ypres failed.

"West of Montdidier the enemy during a local advance penetrated into Cantigny yesterday.

"The armies of Col.-Gen. Boehm and Gen. Von Below of the army of the German Crown Prince have victoriously continued their attack. French and English reserves rushed up were defeated.

"The right wing divisions of Gen. Larisch, after repelling a French counter-attack, captured the Terny-Sorny Ridge and the heights northeast of Soissons. After hard fighting the troops of Gen. Wichura also broke the resistance of the enemy on the plateau of Conde. Fort Conde was taken by storm. Vregny and Missy also were taken—on the south bank of the Aisne, and the Vesle Heights to the west of Ciry were occupied.

"The corps of Gen. Von Winkdler, Gen. Von Conta and Gen. Schmetow have crossed the Vesle. Braine and Fismes have been captured, and we are standing on the heights due south of the Vesle. The troops of Gen. Ilse have taken the hills northeast of Prouilly by storm and have captured Villers Franqueux and Courcy, and now are fighting for the heights of Thierry.

"In spite of changing weather, our aerial forces are attacking the enemy with bombs and machine guns, while aviators have surveyed without interruption our attack and effect of our artillery fire.

"The number of prisoners has increased to 25,000, including one French and one English general."

German Plots Against Oil Wells Hits Mexican Pockets.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—New reports of a German plot to destroy the Tampico oil wells, from which the American and British navies draw a large part of their oil supplies, reached the State Department today. They said an attempt to destroy the wells was to be made tomorrow.

Officials here are depending on the Mexican authorities to protect the wells, as a large part of the Mexican government's revenues are derived from oil taxes.

FAMINE THREATENS TEUTONIC ALLIANCE.

GERMANS IN AUSTRIA STARVING WHILE CZECHS AND SLAVS KEEP FOOD.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Famine among the Germans of Austria, with the Czechs and Jugo-Slavs keeping their food supplies to themselves, has reached such proportions that the Stuttgart Neues Tageblatt says the Teutonic alliance will be threatened unless a remedy is found. An official dispatch from France today quotes the German paper as follows:

"Heart-rending appeals from our brothers have been reaching us for weeks. They are starving not only in Western Bohemia, but in Carinthia, Syria and Tyrol. The fate of the unfortunate Germans in Austria does not arouse much sympathy in Germany. Many of our compatriots go as far as to say that if the Austrians are starving it is their own fault.

"This policy, which seems justified at first, is no less dangerous if one considers that Hungary is tightly closed and does not allow anything to go into Austria. On the other hand, the Czechs and Jugo-Slavs keep all their food supplies to themselves and refuse to share with the Germans.

"If Germany does not find some remedy to the situation the alliance itself will be threatened."

INDUSTRIES BOARD IS SEPARATE WAR AGENCY.

CHAIRMAN BARUCH GIVEN WIDE POWERS BY NEW ORDER.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Under an executive order announced tonight President Wilson formally created the War Industries Board as a separate administrative agency to act for him and under his direction with all the duties and powers informally conferred by the President last March in a letter to Bernard Baruch, chairman of the board.

Many of the powers delegated are vested in Chairman Baruch, who is the President's right arm for war production. The board, originally a great division of the Council of National Defense, has been exercising its wide powers for three months, but its creation as a distinct branch of the government awaited the enactment of the Overman bill authorizing the President to reorganize government agencies.

Broad and far reaching supervision over virtually the entire industrial fabric of the nation, with power to commandeer plants or take other drastic steps to assure a sufficient supply of war supplies and speed up production, the board directs purchasing for the Allies, eliminates competition for supplies between the various departments of the government, has power to allocate materials and contracts and curtail the output of nonessentials and fixes prices to be paid by the government.

Not the least important effort of the board's work is its influence in obtaining for the public the same prices on necessaries that the government pays.

Senator New Terms President Most Astute Leader.

Indiana Republicans Open State Convention.

"Creel's Bunch of Misfits" are Criticised.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

INDIANAPOLIS, May 29.—Declaring that President Wilson is the most astute leader the Democratic party ever had, United States Senator Harry S. New of Indiana, addressing the Indiana Republican State Convention here today as permanent chairman, asserted that there is also the "most uncompromising partisanship of any man who has occupied the White House since the days of Andrew Jackson," Senator New continued:

"President Wilson is a partisan in everything he does or thinks—as adroit as he is persistent. It is evident that the slogan of his party in the campaign before us is to be 'stand by the President' and by attending argument that if one is a patriot and a true American he must elect the candidates of the President's party for seats in Congress in order that he may lend support in that body; or that if one fails to support those candidates he votes to discredit the President and his administration and gives aid and comfort to our enemy is false.

"Mr. Creel, with his bunch of socialistic, muck-raking misfits employing this sort of propaganda in every form at his unlimited command—the bulletins, the movies, the Chautauquas, The men of the tax paying public foots the bills.

Senator New declared that President Wilson had had every possible support from the Republicans in every step taken or contemplated with reference to the war.

"Our message to the Prussians," said Senator New, "is 'Go to hell.' We are with you heart and soul in life and in purse in the things that have to do with the winning of the war, but make no mistake we abate no particle of our right to fight on the party of our choice or yield nothing of our principles to reassert them."

LOS GROVE DISTILLER COMPROMISES FEDERAL EVASION CASE FOR $70,000.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Edward L. de Roza, charged by the federal internal revenue officers with having attempted to evade the payment of taxes on wines, today made an offer of compromise to the government, and deposited $70,000 in cash and securities, the amount fixed, with Justus S. Wardell, collector of revenue. Mr. Wardell said he would recommend acceptance of the compromise, and dismissal of criminal proceedings already instituted.

De Roza was principal heir of the Los Angeles estate, which owned a large winery near Elk Grove, in Sacramento county. The government alleged that he had avoided payment of taxes on winery products by using unstamped stamps. It computed the amount due at $50,000, and with penalties provided by law, the total of $70,000 offered by De Roza.

Mr. Wardell said the compromise was the largest ever offered, within his knowledge, for settlement of a prohibition charge in Northern California. He said no compromise settlements of future offenses would be allowed while the war lasts.

NEW TYPE STEEL SHIP TAKES WATER TODAY.

"AGAWAM," NAMED BY MRS. WILSON, FIRST OF FABRICATED VESSELS LAUNCHED.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Launching tomorrow from the yards of the Submarine Boat Company at Newark Bay of the first of the new standardized fabricated steel vessels for cargo carrying being built by the Emergency Fleet Corporation was announced today by the Shipping Board.

The taking to the water of the new vessel which will bear the name "Agawam, meaning "Great Salt Meadows," selected by Mrs. Woodrow Wilson, will be an important step in the programme of the Shipping Board.

The new vessel, built at yards which have been constructed in the last few months, will have a deadweight carrying capacity of 5500 tons. The Agawam has a length of 343 feet, a beam of 46 feet and tests are expected to show an average speed of 10½ knots an hour.

Fuel oil will be used to generate steam to drive a turbine operating 2800 revolutions a minute. The oil will be carried in compartments of the double bottom of the ship in sufficient quantity for more than a round trip to Europe.

Approximately twenty-seven steel mills, fifty-six fabricating plants and 200 foundries and equipment shops were drawn upon to construct the ship. The various steel parts of the vessel's hull and superstructure were fabricated as completely as practicable in structural steel shops throughout the country and then were assembled at the Newark Bay shipyard into a complete vessel. This plan, shipping officials say, has resulted in economy and speed heretofore thought impossible.

The programme of the submarine corporation as outlined by the Emergency Fleet Corporation of which it, with the Hog Island plant, is a part, calls for 150 vessels of the size and type of the Agawam. It is expected the others of the class will be constructed in even shorter time than was the one to leave the ways tomorrow.

Twenty-eight shipways have been completed at the Newark Bay plant for the building of the new type of vessels.

DRIFT STERN END TO INTO WAR—ROOSEVELT.

STRUGGLE WOULD HAVE BEEN OVER YEAR AGO IF WE HAD PREPARED, HE SAYS.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

MADISON (Wis.) May 29.—Declaring that the war would have been over a year ago if this nation had started to prepare three years ago as it should have; decrying the boasting of this nation of what it intends to do, and praise for the loyalty of the University of Wisconsin and the State of Wisconsin, were the features of the speech of Theodore Roosevelt here last night. He made no reference to Senator La Follette.

"I doubt if there would have ever been any war if we had been prepared," he said. "As it, was, Germany went to war with us sixteen months ago and we went to war with Germany fourteen months ago after drifting stern foremost into the war."

Roosevelt scored the pacifists who, he said, "can't keep us out of the war; they only keep us unprepared."

"Most of the censorship which we have had I think is exceedingly foolish," continued Roosevelt. "I have wished there had been a censorship on boasting. The statements of what we are going to do should have been censored. We were going to have a large airplane fleet. The Germans built to meet that fleet. We were not ready and our Allies, England and France, have had to ward off the attack. Let achievement speak without boasting."

Roosevelt recounted the loyalty of the University and the State of Wisconsin. He said that English should be the language of the schools and foreign languages should not be taught below the high schools; English should be the national language and Americanism should be the national ideals.

"This is a nation and not a polyglot 'boarding-house,'" he declared. "And every newspaper should within a reasonable time be printed in the 'English language."

Concluding, Roosevelt demanded that this nation should be prepared for the future and advocated a policy of "universal, obligatory training of all our young men."

INQUIRIES NOT BLOCK TO WAR, SAYS SENATOR.

Senator Lodge declared that the work of the various inquiries was "not to block progress, but solely to speed up the carrying out of the war.

"There is no disposition on the part of anyone in Congress to do anything but uphold the President and conduct the war to a victorious conclusion," he said.

GERMAN PRIZE LAWS PERIL DUTCH SHIPS.

AMSTERDAM, May 29.—Holland has protested against the modification of the German prize law of April 24, according to a statement made by Foreign Minister Loudon in the Chamber. The Minister said that despite the German offer to make exceptions and provide conditional safeguards in certain cases, the revised rules imperiled Dutch shipping.

A dispatch from Stockholm May 3 quoted the Swedish Leagtion at Berlin as reporting an amendment, immediately effective, to the German prize regulations. The amendment provided that neutral vessels, the dispatch said, should be considered to have been put into operation in the interest of the warfare of Germany's enemies when the state the flag of which vessels were entitled to carry had made a tonnage contract with a country enemy to Germany, or when the principal part of the merchant marine of a neutral state was making voyages for countries at war with Germany.

The Council likewise voted against indorsing the action of the local shipwrights' union in accepting straight time pay for working on the half-holiday instead of time and a half for overtime.

President Wilson and members of the Shipping Board on Monday wired congratulations to the local shipwrights for having decided on the forty-eight hour week.

German Domination of Austria Condemned.

WASHINGTON, May 29.—The United States government views with "earnest sympathy" the nationalistic aspirations of the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugo-Slavs, Secretary Lansing said today.

"The Secretary of State desires to announce," says the Secretary in a statement, "that the proceedings of the congress of oppressed races of Austria-Hungary, which was held in Rome in April, has been followed with great interest by the government of the United States, and that the nationalist aspirations of the Czecho-Slovaks and the Jugo-Slavs for freedom have the earnest sympathy of this government."

The Secretary's announcement was taken as an indorsement of the resolutions adopted by the congress, which met in Rome in April to discuss the liberation of the "oppressed nationalities of Austria-Hungary." These resolutions declared that each of the peoples proclaimed its right to establish its own nationality and state unity; that each recognized in the Austro-Hungarian monarchy "the instrument of German domination," and that each recognized the necessity for "a common struggle against the common oppressor."

Another session of the congress will be held in Paris in June.

Glass, president of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, issued a statement here tonight denying the assertion in the House yesterday by Representative Kitchin of North Carolina, that a newspaper lobby, seeking modification or repeal of the new second-class postage zone rates, was responsible for the administration's insistence that Congress remain in session this summer to enact revenue legislation.

"The newspapers of the country have not maintained a lobby here," Mr. Glass said. "The American Newspaper Publishers, for which I may speak, sent a committee of representative publishers here to work for relief early this month.

"That committee went openly to the Senate, where a postoffice appropriation bill was pending, and obtained open hearings from the Postoffice Committee. They made a plea, either for amendment of the new law so that it would be just, fair and workable, or in case there was no time for investigation before July 1, for a suspension of the law until such a new measure could be matured. So far as I know no member of the committee has approached the House leader in any official way.

"When the proper time should come, it has been the plan to ask the House Postoffice or Ways and Means Committee for the same sort of open hearing obtained in the Senate."

ANGELENO IN WRECK.

Hurt With Forty Others When Southern Pacific Train is Derailed in Louisiana.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LAFAYETTE (La.) May 29.—Forty passengers and trainmen were injured, one of the latter perhaps fatally, when Southern Pacific westbound passenger train No. 101, known as the De Luxe Special, was derailed here late today. A defective switch is believed to have caused the wreck.

The train consisted of eleven coaches, all but two to which left the track. Among the passengers injured is E. F. King, of Los Angeles, who was bruised on body and legs.

NEW LIBERTY MOTOR FAULTY, DANGEROUS?

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

NEW YORK, May 29.—Engineering faults of a grave character exist in the Liberty motor, declared Leon Caumen, an engineer and a vice-president of the Aeronautical Society of America, in addressing the society here, and he said an airplane equipped with it is "needlessly dangerous."

The angle between the cylinders, the ignition system and the oil pump drain plug were the specific features of the motor criticised by Mr. Caumen.

TO EXPLAIN SINKING OF SWISS FOOD SHIP.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

BERNE, May 29.—The submarine which sank the steamer Sardinero last February has returned to a German base, and her commander has been ordered to make a full report of the occurance.

Switzerland demands restitution in kind of the cargo of wheat which went down with the ship.

The Sardinero was a Spanish steamer, which was probably chartered by the Swiss government for the transport of food supplies.

ARMY TO CALL MEN WITH MINOR DEFECTS.

TWO HUNDRED THOUSAND RELIEVED AVAILABLE FOR WORK IN FORESTS.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Two hundred thousand men of draft age who because of minor physical defects have been held by examining physicians over the country are to be used in producing or handling equipment for the army. Provost Marshal General Crowder announced tonight that the army staff corps will utilize the service of these registrants and thus release fighting men for the front line.

Gen. Crowder today issued the first call under the new plan. Orders went forth to Governors of States for upwards of 9000 men for service in spruce production for airplanes. The men will be allowed to volunteer until next June 3. After that date a report will be made to the Provost Marshal General and if there are not sufficient volunteers, allotments will be made to the various States to be filled by involuntary inductment.

Some 10,000 men of the army are engaged in getting out spruce timber in the Northwest and the Signal Corps constantly is increasing this number.

Some twenty-four trades or classes, including railroad, transportation and construction men, office workers and laborers, are desired for the spruce division.

In a statement announcing the new plan, Gen. Crowder said the solution of the question of what to do with these men had been "one of the great problems of the draft." Some of the men, it was explained, have a thumb, or toe or eye missing, but almost every one of them is engaged in active business and thus were held to be of some use in the military establishment. After months of study it was decided to call them into branches of the army engaged in producing equipment for the fighting men.

MOONEY REMAINS IN JAIL PENDING APPEAL.

DEFENSE PLANS TO APPLY TO SUPREME COURT IN ELEVENTH-HOUR EFFORT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, May 29.—Thomas J. Mooney, who was yesterday sentenced to be hanged, following his conviction of murder in connection with the death of one of the vicitims of the Preparedness Parade bomb explosion of 1916, will remain in the County Jail for the present. The judgment yesterday provided for his early removal to San Quentin.

This decision followed an agreement by the attorneys in the case that the Superior Court had no jurisdiction over an application for a certificate of probable cause, asked by the defense, and that such application should be made in the Supreme Court.

Judge Griffin, who tried the case and sentenced Mooney, met the attorneys in chambers today and it was then agreed that he had no further jurisdiction. Pending the proceedings in the Supreme Court, Mooney will be kept in the San Francisco County Jail.

CHICAGO HOBOS FACE WORK OR FIGHT EDICT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, May 29.—At a "work or fight" conference of Federal State and city officials today Acting Chief of Police Alcock was authorized to begin immediately a round-up of idlers.

The district plan calls for induction of loafers into industry by the Federal employment service unless they choose to enlist.

Robert H. Ford of the Regional Railroad Administration said "there are more hobos in Chicago than any other city in the country" and that the railroads of his division need 40,000 men.

Lawlessness.

I.W.W. REVOLT PLAN RELATED.

Evidence from Southwest is About Completed.

Reign of Terror at Mines is Described.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

CHICAGO, May 29.—The metal mine phase of the government's case against 113 Industrial Workers of the World, accused of conspiring to cause a rebellion while the nation was at war, virtually was completed tonight, and evidence bearing on Far West and Northwest disorders will be taken up probably tomorrow.

Tales of lawlessness in the Southwest last year at the time the nation was striving to speed up its military preparations were related in correspondence seized from the files of leaders and substantiated by government witnesses brought from the Arizona mining region.

"The government says the draft is going into effect September 1," Grover H. Perry, one of the workers in the Southwest, informed the membership in an official bulletin. "But so far as the I.W.W. miners are concerned, it is not going into effect at all."

This and numerous other declarations against the draft, against Liberty Loan Bonds and against the government were read into the records by Claude R. Porter, special Assistant Attorney-General.

Witnesses told of the reign of terror in the Arizona mining districts involving the deportations of hundreds of I.W.W. from Bisbee, and testified concerning conditions leading up to the strike of mine workers.

Resolutions adopted by the Miami (Ariz.) branch were read into the records by Chief Prosecutor Frank K. Nebeker. They called upon the mine owners to establish a six-hour day, thirty minutes of which was to be allowed for lunch, discharge armed guards, permit affiliation with the I.W.W. by all workers, and fix a minimum wage scale of $6 per day.

William Pope of the Department of Justice and R. R. Riddle, postmaster of Electra, Ariz., testified concerning the activities of Clark, who finally informed the Governor of Arizona that unless miners were granted their demands, the I.W.W. would display its power.

"Clark said he told the Governor that unless concessions were granted there would not be a bushel of grain grown in the Northwest this year," Pope testified.

The organization pointed to its power with statements that immediately after the Arizona strikes, copper production was decreased one-half million pounds a day.

CHEERED FOR KAISER; HE'S IN HOSPITAL NOW.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

RENO, May 29.—Karl Schmidt, a German employed on a ranch near here, Monday night was severely beaten in a fight with Pedro Domingues, a Mexican employed at the same place. Pretending friendship, he induced the Mexican to come to Reno with him today and after visiting numerous saloons the German urged the Mexican to give cheers for the Kaiser, which Domingues did.

Domingues is in the hospital.

SUSPENSION OF ZONE POSTAL SYTEM URGED.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Suspension of the zone system of increased second class postage rates until a year after the war was urged at a conference today of representatives of publishing associations and labor leaders with the New York States delegation in Congress.

John Adams Thayer, for the Periodical Publishers' Association, said the zone plan would defeat its own purpose of collecting additional revenue by putting thousands of magazines, periodicals and farm papers out of business and increasing the subscription prices of those that survive.

SWEDE MINE CHEMIST GUILTY OF SEDITION.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

TUCSON, May 29.—August Sanberg, a subject of Sweden and former chief chemist for the Phelps-Dodge Corporation at Douglas, Ariz., charged with seditious utterances, was found guilty by a jury in the United States District Court this afternoon on five out of six counts in the indictment.

Sandberg was remanded to the custody of the United States Marshal to be confined until sentence is pronounced, which probably will be on Saturday.

Gasoline with a Continuous Chain of Boiling Points

RED CROWN GASOLINE

Only a straight-distilled, all-refinery gasoline can have the continuous, uniform chain of boiling points necessary to give easy starting, quick and smooth acceleration, steady, dependable power and long mileage.

Combustion starts with the lowest boiling points and flashes instantaneously through the medium to the highest. In Red Crown, the Gasoline of Quality, the full and complete chain is there; in "mixtures" some link is always missing.

Judgment.

GRACE LUSK IS FOUND GUILTY.

Woman Slayer Convicted of Second Degree Murder.

Jury Holds Teacher was Sane at Time of Shooting.

Twenty-five Years in Prison Maximum Sentence.

[BY A. P. LIGHT WIRE.]

WAUKESHA (Wis.) May 29.—Grace Lusk was found guilty here tonight of second-degree murder for the killing of Mrs. Mary Newman Roberts.

When the verdict was delivered Miss Lusk attempted to choke D. S. Tullar, acting District Attorney, but was overpowered and led screaming from the courtroom.

"It's a lie! It's a lie against me! It's lie!" she screamed as she sprang at the throat of the prosecutor.

The verdict carries imprisonment from fourteen to twenty-five years. Miss Lusk collapsed when the jury retired, and her condition became such on returning to the jail that it required nearly half an hour to return her to the Courthouse when the jury reported a verdict.

The jury deliberated four hours.

ATTACKS LAWYER.

Grasping the throat of Mr. Tullar, who is more than 60 years old, she shook him back and forth in his chair at the counsel table until several men dragged her away, when she fainted.

Recovering several minutes later, her aged father and one of her attorneys attempted to lead her from the courtroom, but she struggled with them, her hair tumbling about her face as she was dragged away screaming: "That man's son lied! He lied! He lied my life away. Maurice Tullar swore my life away!"

Several hundred spectators, mostly women, stood with tears streaming down their faces during the outbreak. The twelve men on the jury stood in their places with ashen faces after the verdict was read, and shrank away from Miss Lusk as she was led past the jury box.

DEFENDANT HYSTERICAL.

When the case was given to the jury Miss Lusk, who had shown little emotion during the day, broke down and sobbed hysterically and it was only after restoratives had been applied that she was able to get back to the courtroom when the jury announced that they were ready to report.

More than 100 persons were awaiting the verdict in the dimly lighted room, which quickly filled with spectators as the word spread that the jury was ready to report.

After W. H. Meadows, foreman of the jury, had spoken the words which will send her to the penitentiary, Miss Lusk leaned her head back against her father's shoulder like a tired child.

After remaining quiet for a moment her eyes closed, she slowly rose to her feet, despite Mr. Lusk's efforts to restrain her, and quietly walked around the counsel table until she confronted Mr. Tullar. There was an utter silence as she paused dramatically before throwing herself at the aged man with a half-choked cry which could be heard in every part of the building.

At midnight Miss Lusk was resting quietly in her cell, under the influence of opiates. Judge Lueck, after the outbreak, requested counsel for the defense, to hold all motions in abeyance and immediately adjourned court. Members of the jury said that ten ballots were necessary to arrive at the verdict.

Maurice Tullar, now in a sanatorium because of ill health, is the District Attorney of Waukesha, and at the trial swore that four days after the shooting of Mrs. Roberts he obtained a statement from Miss Lusk in which she said that she realized why she had shot Mrs. Roberts, but could not understand how she had done it so "calmly and deliberately."

D. S. Tullar was appointed special prosecuter at the trial by his son, who was unable to act because of his illness. The elder Tullar took little part in the case, leaving active direction to Walter Corrigan of Milwaukee who had been appointed prosecutor.

Mrs. Roberts was shot and killed by Miss Lusk in the latter's home the afternoon of June 21, 1917. The tragedy followed a friendship extending back to the summer of 1914 between Dr. David Roberts, former State Veterinarian and nationally known as a manufacturer of proprietary medicines for cattle, and Miss Lusk, who had won distinction as an educator after having taken a degree at the University of Wisconsin. At the time she met Dr. Roberts she was a teacher in the Waukesha Normal School.

Walter D. Corrigan, for the prosecution, and James Clancey for the defense, delivered the closing arguments. Mr. Corrigan, in demanding the maximum penalty, declared that neither Dr. David Roberts or Miss Lusk was on trial for their relationship, and that the only question to be decided was responsibility for the death of an innocent woman. He declared that a motive was given in the letters the school teacher had written where she had referred to the "elimination" of the third party in the triangle and to her desire to replace Mrs. Roberts on the "throne" she occupied as the doctor's wife.

Mr. Corrigan argued that the words and actions of the defendant prove her sane at the time of the shooting. He read the note she wrote immediately after the tragedy, in which she said: "May God forgive me," and to her statement four days later to three witnesses that she realized what she had done, but could not understand how she did it so "calmly and deliberately."

Mr. Clancey cited the stories told on the witness stand by both Miss Lusk and Dr. Roberts as the best proof that the defendant was insane, arguing that a woman of her admitted social and educational attainments would be incapable of the things revealed if she were sane. He referred to the mental taint in her family and nervous breakdown as proving the testimony given by five alienists for the defense that she was suffering from paranoia.

Miss Lusk listened to the closing argument of the State with hardly a trace of emotion, but broke down completely after the case had gone to the jury, and sobbed in her father's arms.

ENVOY REVEALS HUN WAR PLOT.

Conspiracy at Potsdam Made Final Decision.

German Diplomat Boasts of Part in Conference.

Financiers Given Two Weeks to Get Ready.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK, May 28.—The inside story of the Potsdam conference, at which the Kaiser decided on war, was told to United States Ambassador Henry Morgenthau by a German who was present at the Kaiser's command.

This man was Baron Wangenheim, the German Ambassador at Constantinople, when the war began. Mr. Morgenthau tells the story in the June issue of World's Work. He says:

"The German Ambassador left for Berlin soon after the assassination of the Austrian Archduke, and he now revealed the cause of his sudden disappearance. The Kaiser, he told me, had summoned him to Berlin for a conference. This meeting took place at Potsdam on July 5. The Kaiser presided, nearly all the Ambassadors attended, Wangenheim came to tell of Turkey and enlighten his associates on the situation in Constantinople. Moltke, then Chief of Staff, was there, representing the army, and Tirpitz spoke for the navy. The great bankers, railroad directors and the captains of German industry, all of whom were as necessary to Germany war preparations as the army itself, also attended.

READY FOR WAR.

"Wangenheim now told me that the Kaiser solemnly put the question to each man in turn: 'Was he ready for war?' All replied 'Yes' except the financiers. They said that they must have two weeks to sell their foreign securities and to make loans. At that time few people had looked upon the Sarajevo tragedy as likely to cause war. This conference took all precautions that no suspicion should be aroused. It decided to give the bankers time to readjust their finances for the coming war, and then the several members went quietly back to their work or started on vacations. The Kaiser went to Norway on his yacht, Bethmann-Hollweg went for a rest and Wangenheim returned to Constantinople.

"In telling me about this conference, Wangenheim, of course, admitted that Germany had precipitated the war. I think that he was rather proud of the whole performance, proud that Germany had gone about the matter in so methodical and far-seeing a way, especially proud that he himself had been invited to participate in so momentous a gathering. The several blue, red and yellow books which flooded Europe the few months following the outbreak and the hundreds of documents which were issued by Germany's propagandists attempting to establish Germany's innocence never made any impression on me. For my conclusions as to the responsibility are not based on suspicions or beliefs, or the study of circumstantial data. I do not have to reason or argue about matters. I know.

"The conspiracy that has caused this greatest of human tragedies was hatched by the Kaiser and his imperial crew at this Potsdam conference of July 14, 1914.

"One of the chief participants, flushed with his triumph at the apparent success of the plot, told me the details with his own mouth. Whenever I hear people arguing about the responsibility for this war, or read the clumsy and lying excuses put forth by Germany, I simply recall the burly figure of Wangenheim as he appeared that August afternoon, puffing away at a huge black cigar, and giving me his account of this historic meeting. Why waste any time discussing the matter after that?

"This imperial conference took place July 5, the Serbian ultimatum was sent out July 22. That is just about two weeks interval which the financiers had demanded to complete their plans. All the great stock exchanges of the world show that the German bankers profitably used this interval. Their records disclose that stocks were being sold in large quantities and that prices declined rapidly. At that time the markets were somewhat puzzled at this movement. Wangenheim's explanation clears up any doubts that may still remain. Germany was changing her securities into cash for war purposes.

MARKET SHOWS FACT.

"If any one wishes to verify Wangenheim I would suggest that he examine the quotations of the New York Stock Market for those two historical weeks. He will find that there were astonishing slumps in quotations, especially on the stocks that had an international market. Between July 6 and July 22, U. P. dropped from 155⅛ to 127⅝, B. & O. from 91¼ to 81, U. S. Steel from 61 to 59⅛, Can. Pac. from 194 to 185¼ and Nor. Pac. from 111 3-8 to 103. At that time the high protectionists were blaming the Simmons-Underwood Tariff Act as responsible for this fall in values, other critics of the administration attributed it to the Federal Reserve Act—which had not yet been passed. How little the Wall Street brokers and the financial experts realized that an imperial conference held in Potsdam, presided over by the Kaiser, was the real force that was then depressing the market.

"Wangenheim not only gave the details of the Potsdam conference but he disclosed the same secret to the Marquis Carroni, the Italian Ambassador at Constantinople. Italy was at that time, technically Germany's ally."

AIRCRAFT INQUIRY IS STARTED; EDGAR FIRST.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, May 29.—Inquiry into expenditures on aviation fields was taken up today, when the Senate Military Subcommittee, of which Senator Thomas of Colorado is chairman, opened its investigation into the airplane situation.

The committee questioned at length Col. Clinton S. Edgar of the War Department, in charge of construction of fields, who told what contracts had been awarded and what money had been spent.

All are for sale.

BAPTIST LEADER BACK FROM BIG CONVENTION.

CHURCH PLEDGES MILLION AND HALF MEMBERS TO HELP WIN THE WAR.

Rev. W. F. Harper, general secretary of the Southern California Baptist Convention, has just returned from the meeting of the Northern Baptist Convention, at Atlantic City, where there were 2600 delegates, representing the 1,500,000 Baptists of the Northern States.

The delegates from Southern California included Dr. Harper, Dr. James A. Francis, George L. White and Charles H. Barker of Los Angeles; S. W. Cummings, Mrs. J. E. Scott and Mrs. T. S. Tompkins, of Pasadena; Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Day of San Diego; C. Howard Rose of Pomona, and C. E. Griffin of Bakersfield.

The convention, says Dr. Harper, was fired with the patriotic spirit, and pledged its utmost support to President Wilson during the war. From the States represented in the convention, 183,400 Baptist young men have gone into service under the American flag, and more than this number of Baptists have gone from the territory of the Southern Baptist Convention.

The president, George W. Coleman, of Boston, had just returned from a four-months' visit at the front and stirred the great meetings with patriotic fervor. Dr. Saillens, the outstanding Protestant leader of France, was a guest of the convention and brought messages of thrilling interest concerning the sacrifices of the French people and their great appreciation of the help of America. Dr. Saillens will be heard in Los Angeles before his return to France. Dr. James A. Francis of this city was one of the speakers of the convention, also S. W. Cummings of Pasadena.

WOULD GIVE HIS SALARY.

East San Diego Man, Candidate for Office, Makes Unusual Declaration.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, May 29.—A. A. Schilling of East San Diego made the unusual statement today, when he announced his candidacy for justice of the peace, that if elected he will give all his salary of $250 a month to war funds. Schilling says he is able to make this sacrifice because he has property interests and he feels that everyone should do his bit and he is prepared to do his. He states that if elected he will divide the salary among various funds; $100 a month to the Red Cross, $50 a month to the Y.M.C.A., and the remaining $50 for future Liberty Loans.

HANISH CASE UP AGAIN.

Grand Jury Investigating Charges Made by Young Girls Against Cult Leader.

Alleged criminal activities of Rev. Dr. Otoman Zar-Adusht Hanish, master of the Reorganized Mazdaznan Temple Association of the Associates of God, with headquarters at No. 217 South Hill street, are being investigated by the county grand jury, it developed yesterday. There will not be a report on the matter for several days, but in the meantime Hanish is missing and cannot be located.

The alleged victims of the head of the cult are said to number five or six young girls, the oldest but 14 years of age. All have made statements, it is said, to the District Attorney's office. In addition to the master of the Mazdaznan sect, other heads of the corporation, which, it is claimed, was chartered by the State of California in 1917, are sought by officers of the District Attorney's office.

One of the girls involved in the scandalous charge is the daughter of Mrs. Clara Hancock, who is now in the hands of the Federal authorities on the charge of uttering seditious language.

A number of the parents of the girls appealed yesterday for the release of their children from the Juvenile Hall, but the matter went over until Saturday.

NEW REGULATIONS FOR FILM PLANTS PLANNED.

COUNCIL TAKES THE PROPOSED CHANGES UNDER ADVISEMENT.

Regulation of the motion picture plants within the city limits, rather than the removal of any of them, is the prophesied policy of the Council. Yesterday the Public Welfare Committee heard both sides of the mooted question and finally decided to take it under advisement, and request the City Attorney for advice as to the legal features involved.

Little or no objection was raised to the location of the studios, but some of the persons living near them complained about unusual noises. The City Attorney said that most of these objections are of no consequence, because they can be remedied by merely applying the present laws.

William Mead, representing the Chamber of Commerce, urged the Council to take no drastic action, pointing out that the motion picture industry is one of the largest in Southern California, and should be encouraged.

Mr. Mead, said, however, no one would object to an ordinance which will permit the enlargement of the studios, upon a small scale.

It is believed more than probable that the zones will be left almost as they now are, and the motion picture producers will be compelled to go into the one big zone south of the Hollywood cemetery, if they want larger quarters.

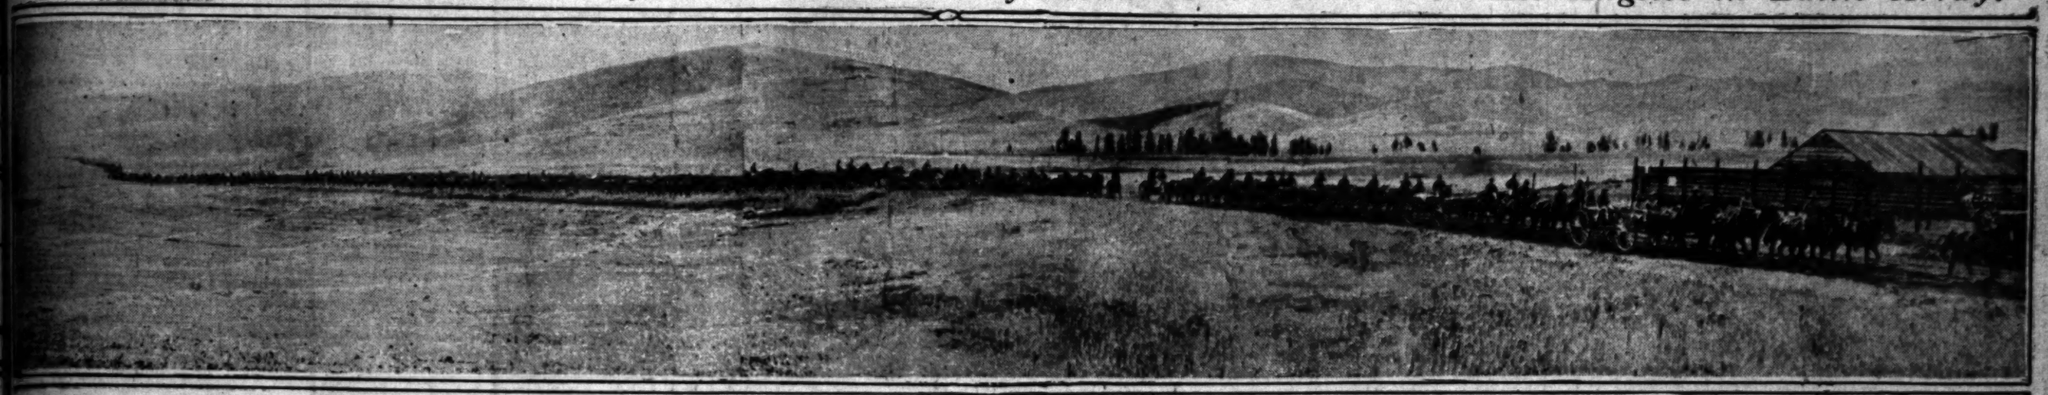
How the One Hundred and Forty-third Field Artillery Looks as it Marches on Los Angeles in Battle Array.



On the march yesterday morning through the hills south of Chino.

Camp Kearny to Los Angeles.

TRACK REGIMENT ON RECORD MARCH REACHES CITY TODAY.

COMPLETING the last lap in the first half of the longest hike ever undertaken by a regiment of field artillery in this State, the One Hundred and Forty-third Regiment, Field Artillery, will arrive at Exposition Park this afternoon for a two-day stay.

When they pitch their tents here tonight the troops will have covered 170 miles in four days. They are coming from Camp Kearny to give the people of Los Angeles a touch of real war maneuvering before starting for France, and will entrain for San Diego Monday night. The trip will cover a distance of 175 miles, which, according to Col. R. J. Faneuf, the commanding officer, is the longest march ever undertaken by a California regiment of field artillery.

At the rate they have marched they could go from Paris to Berlin in about two weeks.

The mounted men will reach the city limits on Stephenson avenue this afternoon about 1 o'clock. They will travel in First street and then turn on Broadway to Main street, Adams street and Exposition Park. The line of march for the parade to be held by the One Hundred and Forty-third Artillery tomorrow is as follows:

Starting from Exposition Park at 9 o'clock, north on Figueroa street to Washington street, east on Washington street to Main street, north on Main street to junction of Broadway, north on Broadway to First street, east on First street to Spring street, south on Spring street to the junction with Main street, south on Main street to Jefferson street, west on Jefferson street to Figueroa street and south on Figueroa street to Exposition Park.

Tonight the regimental band will furnish music for the "Wake Up America" patriotic programme in Shrine Auditorium. Friday afternoon, the entire regiment will parade the city streets to arouse interest in the pageant which the Friday Morning Club is to stage in the Majestic Theater, Saturday afternoon and evening, for the benefit of the Red Cross.

FOR FIELD DAY.

The biggest feature of the regiment's visit will be at Exposition Park, Saturday afternoon, when the troops will give a field day exhibition of sportsmanship. There will be fourteen events. These will include mounted Roman races, officers' races, singles and doubles, field artillery maneuvering and a sham battle. In the latter the American three-inch field piece, firing shrapnel, will be used.

During the visit of the One Hundred and Forty third Regiment people here will have an opportunity to see the flower of Pacific Coast Field Artillery organizations in action.

The artillerymen have been four days en route to Los Angeles. Their first day out was from Camp Kearny to Fallbrook. The second day took them to Elsinore. They reached Corona, Tuesday evening, and yesterday they journeyed to Puente.

NOT ENOUGH GIRLS.

All along the route patriotic people have been giving the soldiers a wonderful reception. At Corona 200 automobilists drove out to the camp at the Mills Rancho, took the artillerymen to their homes for the evening meal, hauled them downtown, where there was a street dance until 11 p.m., and then took the whole regiment back to camp. The dance broke up with loud cheering for Corona and thanks for her hospitality. A singular feature of the dance at Corona was the fact that all the women and girls in the town were not enough to supply the soldiers with partners, and girls in short dresses had to hop out and fox-trot with the boys in order to make the sociability 100 per cent.

The regiment broke camp at 7 o'clock yesterday morning and forded the Santa Ana River, headed for Pomona, where a remarkable noon reception had been planned. The distance was covered by 11 o'clock and the regiment was welcomed by such a crowd as has not been assembled at the "Inland City Beautiful" since its "Pageant of Progress," three years ago.

Decoration Day

Thursday

May

30th

—Memorial Day—enshrined in the heart of every true, living American.

—The day on which a grateful nation gives pause, forgets business cares and everyday pursuits to do honor to the memory of the heroes of bygone days.

—The day on which the graves of these patriots are lovingly decorated and the solemnly beautiful, symbolic ceremony of casting flowers upon the waters of the sea is observed.

—In the lapse of time we are prone to forget what has gone before, but this year the tremendous world conflict and its attendant horrors has lessened the gap between the quick and the dead and makes Decoration Day one of deeper than usual significance.

—May we all comport ourselves on this day with becoming humility so that we may become a better and a stronger people from its lessons.

NEARLY SIX MILLIONS RAISED IN CALIFORNIA FOR RED CROSS.

WHILE final reports of the second Red Cross war fund drive for the Pacific division have not yet been received, the reports to last night showed a grand total of $6,307,468.62. Of this, California subscribed $5,762,035.13; Arizona, $447,545.97, and Nevada, $97,887.47.

John B. Miller, chairman of the war fund campaign in the Pacific division, returned from San Francisco yesterday morning, where he had his headquarters during the drive, and has re-established his headquarters at his office in Los Angeles.

The reports for the campaign for principal points in California are as follows:

Chapter—	Quota.	Subscribed.	P.c.
San Francisco	$1,050,000	$1,528,088.00	145.51

Fresno	100,000	160,000.00	160000

"The most remarkable thing about this great campaign is that almost half of our entire population in the division have been subscribers to the second war fund," said Mr. Miller yesterday.

FLEET OF CONCRETE OIL TANKS PROJECTED HERE.

FOLLOWING yesterday's announcement from Washington that San Diego has been selected as a site for one of the government's concrete merchant shipyards came word that Los Angeles is likely to be designated as a place for the building of a large fleet of concrete oil tankers. Work will start at once on the San Diego plant, which will employ 3000 men. The selection was due to the fact that San Diego had no shipping and a large number of empty houses.

Los Angeles was recommended for an additional yard, and, while there is a remote possibility that it will not be a government yard, it will in effect be one, as it will be under the protection financially and otherwise of the Shipping Board. Final decision on this matter may be deferred until the visit of Director-General Schwab here next month.

After the meeting of the Shipping Board at Washington it was learned that the recommendations in favor of an additional yard at Los Angeles are high and that, aside from the surplus houses at San Diego, Los Angeles is regarded as having many advantages in proximity to material, cement plants, railroad transportation and plentiful labor.

LETS TORCH BURN; BUILDING DESTROYED.

An acetylene brazing torch, left burning in the repair shop of the Thor Motorcycle Agency, operated by T. E. Berry at No. 918 South Main street, last night caused a fire which damaged the stock of the agency to the extent of $2000.

At first the fire was thought to be incendiary, but an investigation by Detectives Bowe and Taylor disclosed the fact that the torch had carelessly been left burning by one of the workmen and had caused the flames.

WILL BRING BODY HERE FOR BURIAL.

BENJAMIN JOHNSON, FORMER LOCAL CAPITALIST, DIES IN NEW YORK.

Arrangements were under way last night to bring back to this city for burial the body of Benjamin Johnson, former Los Angeles capitalist, who died suddenly early yesterday morning in New York City. Mr. Johnson was in his room at the Hotel Astor. Apoplexy was the cause of death.

Mr. Johnson, who was 55 years of age was in the quartermaster's department of the United States Army. He had served on the staff of Maj.-Gen. Shafter in the Santiago campaign of the Spanish-American War, and afterwards saw service in the Philippines. He retired from the army in 1901, but last December again volunteered for military duty and was assigned to the quartermaster's department in New York.

He was a brother of E. P. Johnson, Jr., of this city, and was a former president of the Los Angeles Market Company, being prominent in business circles here for years.

Besides the widow, he leaves two daughters, Miss Dorothy Johnson, prominent in Los Angeles social circles, and Mrs. Hugh Brown, whose husband is an instructor at Annapolis. Mrs. Johnson and the younger daughter arrived in Los Angeles yesterday, after having visited Mr. Johnson in New York. The widow is prostrated by the news of the sudden death.

NOW PASADENA COLLEGE

District Assembly of Nazarenes Changes Name and Widens Scope of Institution.

The district assembly of the Nazarenes has decided to change the name of the present college, which is in Pasadena, to the Pasadena College. The school will be widened to embrace education to all professional branches of life.

Articles of incorporation for the new college were filed yesterday, and the following were elected trustees: Howard Eckel, A. O. Hendricks, F. S. Winn, Fred A. Runquist, C. E. Jones, Will H. Nerry and G. A. Darling. Five of the trustees must be members in good standing of the Pentecostal Nazarene Church. This year 100 pupils attended the school. A brother of A. O. Hendricks has assumed all of the debts of the old college.

FOR HARBOR HOUSING.

Man Who Plans Large Number of Homes for Shipyard Workers is to Get Additional Land.

The Harbor Commission yesterday granted the request of Dr. H. H. Stone for thirteen additional acres of harbor lands to be used as sites for homes for employees of the shipbuilding plants. The commission, however, refused to enter into a long-term lease, and said it would only issue a revocable permit to Dr. Stone.

Dr. Stone had already been given permission to use 2500 feet of frontage, but he told the commission his plans make it necessary to have more ground. He is prepared, it is said, to erect a large number of homes just as soon as the deal with the city is consummated.

Memorial Day Prayer.

BY RT. REV. JOHN J. CANTWELL, Bishop of Monterey and Los Angeles.

[I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States of America . . . do exhort my fellow-citizens of all faiths and creeds to assemble on that day . . . and to pray Almighty God . . . beseeching Him that He will give victory to our armies as they fight for freedom.—Extract from President Wilson's Memorial Day proclamation.]

Oh, Almighty and Everlasting God, by whom kings ruled and princes decreed just things, who shapest the destinies of nations, the prayer that Thy servants sent up to Thee, who alone in an anxious day and hour can bless and prosper them.

We are mindful that Thou art the God of our fathers, who inspired the beginnings of this government where the children of many races have enjoyed life and liberty, and have worked out their temporal and eternal salvation. Thou hast blessed and prospered us beyond the measure of our desserts, and above the bounty of other nations. We thank Thee as loving children for what Thou hast done for ourselves and for our country, and in this hour are not unmindful of our less fortunate brethren. . With them do we share our treasure and our lives that the unchangeable principles of freedom and democracy may live and reign and conquer. Grant, oh, kindest of Fathers, that the gallant sons of our race and our devoted daughters may ever live under Thy paternal care. For our men do we pray constancy and courage and victory in the hour of trial, for our daughters, the spirit of sacrifice, largeness of vision and heroic endurance. Grant to the President of our country, and to all who sustain his arms in these days, such wisdom as will keep our country in the future as it has been in the past, the guardian and the champion of human liberty without which there can be no glory in time or in eternity.

SANTA MONICA PLANS BIG BOOST CAMPAIGN.

Propose to Make Beach City One of Best-Known Resorts in the World.

FOR the first time in its recent history Santa Monica resident and nonresident property owners have united on a plan for a big general campaign to make of this seaside city one of the best-known high-class beach resorts in the world. Under this new move Santa Monica does not aspire to become a commercial center, but it does propose to utilize its great natural assets of magnificent beach, imposing plateau and palisades, mountains and canyons to such advantage that they shall become famous and an attraction that will draw people from all over the world.

The preliminary work on this movement began three weeks ago with meetings among some of the larger resident property owners of Santa Monica. A long step was taken yesterday when more than a score of men, representing large nonresident property interests, met at a luncheon at the Lankershim Hotel and provided for a committee to co-operate with the committee of residents.

PROMINENT CITIZENS.

The new movement is to be in charge of the Santa Monica Beach Association. The representatives of the resident property owners are W. D. Stattleman, Robert W. Brown, G. Franklin and H. L. Hall. The nonresident property owners are to be represented by a committee of three from among the number present at yesterday's luncheon. They will be appointed by Col. J. B. Lankershim, who was chairman, within the next day or so. These two bodies are to formulate the general working plan for the organization and to submit an outline of tentative policies for a big and aggressive campaign that will reach to all parts of the United States and into foreign lands.

H. L. Hall, who established a chain of magnificent hotels throughout Mexico, and who is now a resident of Santa Monica, was the spokesman at yesterday's meeting and presented the general plan for utilizing Santa Monica's natural and acquired advantages in a manner that will give it large prestige. He declared that the reason for lack of progress in the beach city during the past few years was largely a psychological one, and that the place is blessed by nature with a climate and topography that will make it world-famous if properly utilized.

This was followed by short and practical talks by Mayor Berkeley and Commissioners Townsend and Carter, J. Wiseman MacDonald, Col. J. B. Lankershim, H. M. Gorham, president of the Bank of Santa Monica; James Mellus, W. J. Stattleman, C. L. Bundy and others. All thoroughly indorsed the idea of co-operating all interests in a big and intensive campaign to make Santa Monica pre-eminent as a high-class beach resort.

DOZEN OBJECTIVES.

It was suggested that the plan of policy shall include at least a dozen definite objects to be worked for and that the full force of the association shall be put behind these until they are secured. Photographs of European beach resorts of world-wide fame were submitted, showing how Santa Monica, through its natural topography, will be able to utilize the best features in all of these and make the most of her long, fine stretch of firm sands, her plateau, her canyons and the mountains back of the city.

A further meeting of the committees will be held within a few days, preparatory to an immediate launching of the new campaign. One of its features will be the plan to attract thither hundreds of the United States service men who inevitably will be sent home for rest and recuperation. Another is the acquirement of a large, modern hotel, and there are numerous other plans for development on high-class lines that are under consideration.

Yesterday's meeting was a notable one in that for the first time some of the big opposing interests were united in the general plans for the beach city's advancement. The men present at yesterday's luncheon represented several million dollars' worth of beach property.

SAFETY IN AGE.

Woman Successfully Defends Good Name by Showing Man was Seventy.

Mrs. Laura J. Lighton appeared in Judge Jackson's court yesterday afternoon to defend her good name from a charge that she had misconducted herself in a downtown hotel with John Brown. The charge was made by Joseph B. Lighton, a machinery worker, who told how he had seen his wife talking to Mr. Brown on the street and followed them to the hotel.

Mr. Lighton said he broke in the room door and surprised the couple, but the gravity of the charge was minimized when he stated that Mr. Brown is 70 years old, while his wife is 39. She admitted meeting Mr. Brown, an inspector of drug stores, and going to his hotel with him.

"He was not well and asked me to accompany him. We talked a while and then he asked me to stay longer and apply cold cloths to his head," she explained.

The court did not regard the incident seriously, it appears, and after denying Mr. Lighton a decree, divided the community property between the couple.

ALLEGES CRUELTY.

Robert L. Tatum, a real estate operator with offices in the Title Insurance Building and living at No. 1930 Vineyard avenue, was yesterday made defendant in a suit for divorce filed by Maud B. Tatum. She alleges cruelty.

CASE COMPROMISED.

The $5000 damage suit of Park R. Lackey against the Los Angeles Railway Corporation, called in Judge Valentine's court yesterday, did not go to trial, a compromise having been effected out of court. Mr. Lackey, an efficiency expert, alleged that he was thrown from his seat when the car rounded a curve and was injured. The corporation denied that Mr. Lackey's injuries were caused by the negligence of the car crew.

"SON OF THE SOUTHLAND" DRAWS VAST CROWD TO EXPOSITION PARK

PROBABLY the greatest crowd that has ever assembled in the bounds of Los Angeles gathered last evening at Exposition Park to witness the gigantic pageant-masque "The Son of the Southland." They came by tens of thousands from every direction and by 7:30 o'clock there was a sea of people, ranging from babes-in-arms to gray haired men and women, bounded by the State, Art and Armory Buildings of the great park. At 8 o'clock they still came, bringing with them blankets, newspapers, boxes and automobile robes to sit upon, all of which, however, were promptly discarded for lack of space. Automobiles stretched for several miles and for hours came from all parts of the compass.

Mrs. Lillian Burkhardt Goldsmith has the distinction of directing what is perhaps the Southland's most spectacular pageant. Even though only a small portion of the crowd was able to hear the lines of the speakers, everybody could see the spectacular lighting effects and hear the powerful voices of Carlos Bravo, tenor; Jerome Uhl, baritone, and Mme. Mariska Aldrich, who, as Liberty, stood on a platform raised high above the crowd and thrilled her audience with the strains of "The Star Spangled Banner." In addition, the voices of Miss May Neil, Miss Mary Gowan and Miss Elsa Kitts were heard to excellent advantage.

Miss Theresa Coggswell, as the Son of the Southland, gave a rare interpretation. With her powerful and splendid speaking voice she could be heard by thousands. Miss Mabel Hubbard, as "Joan of Arc," was a striking figure on her white charger, which she brought with her from Redlands. James Bush as Pan was graceful and fairy-like.

The magic wand of the producer in three symbolic parts, "The Garden of Make-Believe," "The Legend of the Arrow," and "A World at Peace." The first, in which fifty children participated, represented scenes from what might be termed a child's garden of verses. There was a fairy ballet, a flower-basket and several scenes of a mythical fantasy.

In the second part, real Indians, brought from various parts of the country, re-lived the old scenes of their camp fires. Among them were chiefs of both the East and West, who systematically presented scenes from their historic folk-lore. As a climax, the huge, electric arrow-head, placed on top of the band-stand forty feet above the crowd was lighted, illuminating the entire scene.

"A World at Peace" brought forth more than 100 charming women in the costumes of the several Allies. Russia was there with her flag lowered in the dust. And the Red Cross nurses portrayed scenes of their work on the battlefield. As a finale, Liberty roused her flaming torch above the crowd, symbolic of peace, while the entire assemblage sang the national anthem.

For the masse dances, performers were furnished by the Danishawn School and the various high schools of the city. Many soldiers participated in "A World at Peace," and Boy Scouts assisted generally throughout.

All Creeds.

VICTORY FOR NATION IS PRAYER OF CITY TODAY.

ALL religious denominations of Los Angeles today will observe President Wilson's call to prayer for the success of our armies in the great war for humanity.

For the Catholics there will be an open-air solemn mass at 10:30 o'clock at Calvary Cemetery and a sermon by Rev. John Crawley, with special prayers for blessings on our arms. The Episcopal churches of this diocese will all have special services, and a noon-prayer service will be held at St. Paul's Pro-Cathedral. A noon undenominational prayer service will be held in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, and the Church of the Open Door. Bible Institute Auditorium, will have prayer services from 10:30 to 12 o'clock and at 8 o'clock this evening.

The Armenians will have a special service of prayer and meditation at 10:30 o'clock in the Gethsemine Congregational Church, Twenty-eighth and Paloma streets. A service of prayer will be held at 7:30 o'clock this evening in Temple Beth Israel, Olive and Temple streets.

Many church group services will be held. One at 10 o'clock will be in the First Baptist Church, and another will be in the Vernon-avenue Congregational Church at 2:30 o'clock.

At least fifteen of these group services will be held. Marshall Stimson, head of the organization of four-minute men, has issued orders for the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address at each of these services and also at each of the theaters during the day and evening.

The various G.A.R. posts and corps and the other patriotic organizations will visit the cemeteries this forenoon and decorate the graves of soldiers.

Memorial services will be held at Forest Lawn Cemetery this afternoon, and memorial organ programmes will be rendered there at the Little Church of the Flowers both forenoon and afternoon.

Memorial services will be held at the soldiers' monument in Central Park at 10 o'clock this forenoon, when several military organizations will participate.

Tonight at 7 o'clock the programme, entitled "Wake Up, America," will be given at Shrine Auditorium, particularly for the men engaged in the shipbuilding industries and other war work.

The City Council yesterday unanimously adopted a resolution calling upon all citizens to observe the day in the spirit of the proclamation issued by President Wilson.

NEAR NEIGHBORS BECOME NEARER

Man Married Four Times Tries it Once Again Close to Home.

Near neighbors became nearer and dearer yesterday when Dean Ezra A. Healy of the college of theology, University of Southern California, said the words that made John W. McFatridge and Lucy McClain man and wife. He has been living at No. 941 West Thirty-fifth street, and she at No. 1020 West Thirty-fifth street.

Mr. McFatridge is a mining man and is 70 years of age, and his bride is 53. It is his fifth marriage. The wedding ceremony was performed in Dean Healy's study in the university administration building.

SOCIETY.

BY VIRGINIA WOODS.

Two Brides-elect.

Misses Georgianna Drummond and Mildred Baer, who are to be married tomorrow evening at a double-wedding ceremony to Ensign Francis Shaw Baer and Ensign Richard Reid Davis, Jr., respectively, will be honor guests at 4 o'clock this afternoon at an elaborately-appointed tea at the Midwick Country Club at which Mrs. Albert Sherman Hoyt will entertain forty Pasadena society girls, all members of the auxiliary of the Girls' and Boys' Aid Society of Pasadena. Mrs. Hoyt is president of the auxiliary and the two brides-elect have worked diligently with her for the past two years.

Among the girls to be there are Miss Ruth Hoyt, Miss Barbara Scoville, Miss Lubelle Boice, Miss Alice Allen, Miss Christine Wetherbee, Miss Frances Lunkenheimer and Miss Helen Sherk, all but the latter to be in the wedding party. On June 15 a committee, of which Mrs. Hoyt is chairman, is to give a garden fete in the Busch gardens for the benefit of the Pasadena chapter of the Red Cross. It is the intention of the committee to make it the most charming society event of June. It will start at noon with a carnival of folk dancing, to end off with gay tea parties. At the sunset hour Mme. Schumann-Heink will sing in concert with 5000 school children. The affair will end at midnight with a military ball in the gardens, where a monster platform will be built for dancing. There will be no raffles, and the cost will be only $1.

For Charles Wakefield Cadman.

Mrs. James Henry Ballagh of No. 2 Fifth avenue is planning a luncheon for Charles Wakefield Cadman on Sunday afternoon. She has invited to meet the well-known composer about twenty-five of the well-known musicians in town to a reception scheduled for 3:30 o'clock. At 6 o'clock she will serve a light supper. She will be assisted in receiving by Mrs. Charles Sumner Kent and Mrs. William Wiley Stevens.

Mrs. Williamson.

A congenial group of society women have been invited to a bride-shower at the Beverly Hills Hotel tomorrow, at which Mrs. H. K. Williamson of No. 601 Park View avenue is entertaining.

Southern Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Danziger, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Heffner and Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Faulkner have been invited to an old-fashioned southern dinner with which Mr. and Mrs. Raymond are to entertain Sunday evening.

For a Bride-elect.

Miss Beulah Wright, dean of the college of women of the University of Southern California, whose marriage to W. W. Comstock, an Iowa attorney, will be an event of June, is the inspiration for a large tea with which Mrs. J. B. Stearns of No. 2632 Monmouth street is entertaining on Saturday. Miss Wright is honor guest at an elaborate luncheon given on Saturday by Mrs. W. B. Honeywell of Beverly Hills. The table appointments and corsage bouquets were designed from Cecile Brunner roses and attractive place cards indicated seats for a dozen guests. Among Mrs. Stearns's guests will be members of the Drama League.

Mrs. Miner.

Mrs. Randolph Huntington Miner, head of the naval auxiliary in San Francisco, returned from San Diego yesterday with her sisters, Mrs. Mary Longstreet and Mrs. James Calhoun Drake, who accompanied her south on Monday and after a few days' visit will go back to San Francisco on Sunday.

From Far East.

Already in San Francisco, Sir William Maxwell, Lady Maxwell and Miss Maxwell are expected to pay a visit to Los Angeles shortly. They arrived in the Bay City a few days ago from Calcutta, India, coming on a transport from the Far East with A. R. San Galli and family from Petrograd. They are at present at the Fairmont Hotel.

Thorne-Minzer Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Thorne of No. 1232 West Thirty-first street announce the marriage of their daughter Elsie to Sergt. W. B. Minzer of the One Hundred and Forty-fourth Field Artillery, stationed at Camp Kearny. The ceremony took place in San Diego. The bride is a graduate of the University of Southern California, and Sergt. Minzer, formerly of Hollywood, was a chemist in the employ of the city. He was

A CLUB NEOPHYTE'S CHATTER.

LOS ANGELES, May 29.

DEAR AUNT SOPHIA: My first season as a club neophyte is drawing to a close. One by one the feminine homes of culture and enshrined reason are holding their "last meeting of the year." It has been hectically intellectual and your Betty has a sense of having crammed for a Senior Wranglership at least. I have acquired a vast smattering of knowledge, more or less digestible, and have listened to quite a hundred masculine speeches in which it appears we women are the salt of the earth, the sublime quintessence of superfine intelligence, bear all the burdens, make all the reforms, and, in fact, minus our intellectual and moral guidance, the world could never hope to be a decent place to live in. Yes, auntie dear, it is always the men speakers that tell us this, and we generally exchange winks without commotion.

But now and again a speaker talks to us as man to man. Lieut. Rosselli, the Italian pleader, for instance. The week before Capt. Fallon, the facile-tongued Irishman, had waxed roguish anent femininity generally and quite fussed us with his romantic translation of all things, including tanks, to gentle ladyishness, and his recitals of hospital pulse-taking and hand-squeezing. So we all bought his autographed war book for the Red Cross and treasured the individual remarks he tossed us in the process. But Rosselli eclipsed him. We all wanted to adopt an Italian baby forthwith and raise little Rossellis of our own. And then came Prof. Kaun on Russia, and our international emotions were stirred again—I think we almost felt it our duty to adopt a Cossack or a Mujik or something after hearing what lofty, affectionate characters they all have. There is one thing we women have learned most effectually during this hectic international propaganda season, and that is that all Belgians, all French people, all Serbians, all Russians, all Italians, all English, all Japanese, and nearly all Irish, are beautiful, noble, brave, irreproachable characters, sans peur et sans reproche. It really wouldn't seem possible for any nation to harbor so many Christian virtues as the Russians, but Prof. Kaun never blinked an eyelid as he recited their perfections.

Oh, yes, and talking of virtues, you know the Friday Club dances for the navy boys have been very carefully superintended. And, since either their charms are dubious or their propriety doubtful, married ladies have not been permitted on the dancing floor. And now comes a protest from the married men that they should be required to dance exclusively with "chickens." Why should they be denied the company of women of their own age and wisdom, they ask? And at the Friday Morning Club, too! So there you are. And Madame President did feel so sure she was doing the tactful and appreciated thing.

The City Club's election agonies are over. Dr. Jessie Russell has recovered from the sorrows of superfluous love—you know a score of admirers just would vote for her and she had to write reams and reams explaining she wasn't a candidate. And Mrs. Fred Hickok has been elected vice-president and her spouse is watching the effects with trembling anxiety. Can a vice-president bake hot cakes?

Mrs. R. C. Cressy of the City Club has taken a young widow under her wing and vowed to marry her off, market or no market. She has selected the male victim with care and is casting Hoover to the winds with a lureful dinner party, which she regards as a gilt-edged investment under the circumstances. She is suspected of keeping a parson on the premises ready for all emergencies.

A young woman who joined the land army and appeared in the be-trousered uniform has lost her lover. He saw her picture in the paper and wired orders for her instant resignation. Well he knew the natural acquisition of abiding swank that goes with trousers. She said "Boo." Two days of trousers, and she reeked of independence. So he asked for the ring back. She said she would sell it for the benefit of the Red Cross.

Lieut. Wachs, who drilled the Red Cross ladies for their parade, is said to be convalescent. Even his little French mustache laid down and lost its self-control.

—o—o—

The Friday Club's elections come off next week, with two jolly contests for the offices of vice-president and treasurer. It's awful having to decide between the merits of two irreproachable dames, isn't it? Fancy having to choose between Mrs. Emma Reed and Mrs. Berthold Baruch, for instance, as second vice-president, or between Mrs. Frank Caldwell and Mrs. Joseph Sartori for treasurer. A good deal will depend on who is wearing the most becoming hat that day. The candidates are having a dreadful time trying to look pleasantly indifferent.

Yours frisktly,
BETTY.

THE THIRD FLOOR BACK.

FORBES ROBERTSON IN THE PICTURED PLAY.

By Antony Anderson.

The case of Jerome K. Jerome seems to prove that the humorist is only the preacher gone astray from the fold. Occasionally, the funmaker is brought back by fortuitous circumstances—and then how he does lay down the law to the unregenerate! Jerome wrote "Three Men in a Boat" to make us laugh, and brought us up with a jerk in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back."

The play was hailed as a masterpiece, an up-to-date, modern, new-thought morality play fit to rank with "Everyman." It isn't. But the purveyors and consumers of moral pap drank it greedily. A great actor was prevailed upon to play the role of the stranger who found lodgings in Mrs. Sharpe's very unpleasant boarding-house, and "The Passing of the Third Floor Back" became a sort of sensation in theatricals.

Everybody went to see it. I did—and left after the first act. I thought it a great pity that so fine an actor as Forbes Robertson had prostituted his talents to the thing, and, try as I might, I simply could not "see" him in it. Nor can I see him much more distinctly in the picturized version of the play, which is now running at Tally's Broadway.

However, the picture is a good deal better than the play. More graphic in details, less discoursive in moral platitudes. The picture simply could not get all the platitudes in, for which great boon let us give thanks.

As in the play, Forbes Robertson is well supported. Some of the characters—the most of them—approach caricature, but as this was the humorist-preacher's intention, the actors are not to be blamed.

The people who liked the talk-play will undoubtedly like the motion picture. Personally, I prefer a more robust and militant morality in books, plays and pictures—a morality suited to these times, when splendid youths are dying by the millions for the most splendid moral and spiritual cause the world has ever known.

"The Bride's Awakening."

It is to be hoped that few brides experience so sudden and so rude an awakening as befell Elaine, in the photoplay now to be seen at the Superba. Married for her money by a cad who telephoned to his mistress an hour after the ceremony, and who entertained his boon companions with a card and wine party the same evening, the innocent little girl certainly learned a lot with more rapidity than was good for her happiness.

"The Bride's Awakening" tells a good story, but tells it, it seems to me, with too much deliberation. I note a tendency in the latest and newest photoplays to arrest the action of the picture, and, after seeing "The Bride's Awakening" and a few others in the same class—a good class, by the way—I rather question the wisdom of this oversensitive fear of the melodramatic. Life is full of melodrama, and so is Shakespeare; and both of them give us fine stuff.

I think "The Bride's Awakening" falls down in its conclusion. In the last scene three of the main characters of the photoplay are left under suspicion of having shot the cad. They are Elaine, her young lover and the cad's discarded mistress. Yet the play ends right there. Amazing! I sat up and rubbed my eyes. I couldn't believe the staring big sign, THE END. Why, the real drama of the thing was just beginning! Yet, so it was, and I left the theater in bewilderment. Had the cutter decided the play was already long enough—as it undoubtedly was? Or was it the author's doing?

Good actors take a hand in "The Bride's Awakening." Mae Murray plays the dainty bride with delicacy and sweetness, not too tragically—perhaps not tragically enough. Who can gambol in comedy so gracefully as she? And Dearholt makes the handsomest and manliest of lovers.

"Blindfolded."

Crook plays are always interesting to the layman—I mean, of course, to the man who isn't a crook. Professional burglars and pickpockets and safe breakers probably find many of them not true to life, and we may imagine that these light-fingered gentlemen are not always so pleased as we are. In fact, I took a man with me, last night, to see "Blindfolded," a crook photoplay now showing at the Symphony, and he found fault with many of its details. He himself is not a crook, I hasten to say, but a literary man who once visited a crook school in New York for the purpose of getting "atmosphere" for some crook stories.

However, I found "Blindfolded" extremely interesting, and almost as exciting as I had expected. But, in common with most of the photoplays in the modern picture-play industry, it had a back that was a trifle weak in spots—a few of its vertebrae, so to speak, wobbled. It dragged a bit toward its climax, leading us to fear that there wasn't going to be any. Yet the grand climax was good and had an unexpected twist, when it finally did arrive—which proved that the play's author meant well by it and us.

The little girl who is the heroine of "Blindfolded" is pretty and blond—none other than our charming Bessie Barriscale, in fact, being her interpreter. She is the adopted daughter of a blind crook and fence, and she is instructed by a man far cleverer than Fagin. The blind man is known as The Ear, and his use of the stethoscope in detecting the inner clicks of a combination lock is one of the most thrillingly interesting points in a play that has many thrills and excitements.

The photoplay, as well as the acting, of "Blindfolded," is excellent.

INQUIRY ORDERED.

Mayor Frederick T. Woodman, in response to the letter addressed to him by the Los Angeles Gas & Electric Corporation, regarding statements published as to the quality of gas supplied by the corporation, yesterday requested Chief Engineer Howell of the Public Utilities Department to make a report. This report will then be turned over to the State Railroad Commission for that body's inspection, with the request that a thorough investigation be made.

DRAMA.

Midweek.

PLAYS AND PICTURES.

GOOD OFFERINGS ON THE STAGE AND THE SCREEN.

Mason.

Lou Tellegen, who is playing to large audiences at the Mason this week, believes that the day of the esoteric and crook drama is dying, and that romance will once more come into its own. He seems to prove his case by "Blind Youth," the vehicle in which he is playing here. This play is modern romantic comedy, and tells of the adventures of a young artist in Paris and New York. Mr. Tellegen, who made the production himself, has scored with his first venture as an actor-manager. There is to be a special matinee today.

"Oh, Boy," with Joseph Santley, registered one of the largest advance sale openings yesterday, when it began at the Mason Operahouse, which proves that the playgoers of Los Angeles will patronize the theater when given a play worth while. Pretty girls, jolly tunes, clever comedians, attractive costumes and feature dancing by Joseph Santley and Mabel Grete are a few of the important things that have helped toward making "Oh, Boy" the greatest musical comedy produced in the past twenty-five years.

Orpheum.

Nine acts will be featured on the Orpheum bill again next week, with three of them in the headline classification. And atop of the whole list is Ruth St. Denis, who comes with Margaret Loomis in a series of dances. Miss St. Denis and Miss Loomis alternate in solo numbers, and the act is different from any this great star has furnished so far. Llora Hoffman, an American prima donna of note, is included in the list, and will be heard in songs. The Four Mortons, once famous as a stage family, "come back." Andy Rice, monologuist, "in Society," will be another good act, while the Aerial Mitchells, featuring one of the beauties of the stage, will appear, as will Ben Beyer and his trusty wheel, accompanied by Augusta. Edwin Arden and company in "Trapped," Elizabeth Murray and the four Haley sisters will remain.

Morosco.

Now in its second big week and still playing to capacity houses at every performance, "What's Your Husband Doing," the famous George V. Hobart farce at the Morosco, bids fair to break all records for attendance at the house. The play is built for laughing purposes from the ground up, and it is getting a laugh with every line. Never before in the history of the Morosco has such sensational attendance continued throughout a second week of a production. But if the present rate maintains, the second week of "What's Your Husband Doing" will surpass the record set by the first week. All the Morosco favorites are in the cast.

Pantages.

Memorial Day will be no holiday for Singer's Midgets, the band of Lilliputian performers at Pantages this week, for heavy attendance at almost every performance has necessitated Manager Carl Walker to schedule five shows for today, with continuous performances running from 1:45 p.m. on. The Midgets really give a complete show in themselves, but five acts of regular vaudeville are thrown in for good measure. Frank Belmont, in "The Nation's Peril;" the La Folette trio, Parisienne entertainers; Lew Wilson, the variety boy; Madison and Winchester, in "Nonsense," and Fisher and Gilmore in "A Bashful Romeo," and the William S. Hart-Enid Markey photoplay, "The Battle," complete the bill.

Burbank.

That scores of theatergoers in Los Angeles have not forgotten Ferris Hartman and his great musical comedy success, "The Campus," which ran twelve record-breaking weeks at the old Grand Operahouse a few years ago, was proved by the long line of pasteboard-seeking patrons awaiting the opening of the reserved seat sale yesterday morning. The advance sale opened unusually heavy. The Liberty Musical Comedy Company will launch a summer season of high-class musical comedy, with Ferris Hartman heading a company of fifty, at the coming Sunday matinee, in which the opening vehicle will be a 1919 version of Walter de Leon's "The Campus."

Hippodrome.

An exceptionally good programme is on tap at the Hippodrome this week. Special efforts were made to give the people of Los Angeles a real show on Decoration Day, and the management deserves congratulations. Next week the headline attraction is the best of its kind. The Gellis Troupe will be here. They perform astonishing feats of acrobatic strength. Doyle and Wright will bring a blackface act. Argo and Virginia produce music on the harp. Flo Adler is mistress at the art of singing the newest and best songs. Harry Mason's sketch, "Get the Money," is crammed with laughs. Ives, Farnsworth and Leahy are a trio of male singers. Barney Stewart will make a hit as a juggler.

Tally's Broadway.

"De Luxe Annie," heralded as Norma Talmadge's greatest picture, surpassing even "The Ghosts of Yesterday," comes to Tally's Broadway for one week, starting next Monday. The story first appeared as a two-part serial in a popular magazine and was adapted to the stage by Edward Clark and is still playing in many of the largest cities. The screen version follows the staged version very closely and will reveal Miss Talmadge in a role entirely different from any she has hitherto portrayed. Forbes Robertson, in "The Passing of the Third Floor Back," the Robert Bruce "scenic beautiful," and "From Here to Summerland," with the usual high-class musical programme, constitute a bill of unusual excellence at Tally's this week.

Kinema.

Jack Barrymore in "Raffles" is at the Kinema. The story of "Raffles" never grows old. The stage play and the book by E. W. Hornung are somewhat enhanced in screen form, due mostly to the magnetic personality of Jack Barrymore, who flits from comedy to thrills in fast action tempo. Everyone knows the theme—a dashing cracksman who spends his time in outwitting the best detectives in the land for the sheer fun of excitement. And the spectator catches the spirit of the film most easily, thus making a visit to the Kinema decidedly worth while this week. "The Battle of Picardy" is also offered in the news weekly, while Kingsley and his orchestra present a splendid musical programme.

Clune's Auditorium.

The second week of the showing of "My Four Years in Germany," Ambassador James W. Gerard's great war picture, is making a great hit with audiences that have viewed it. Every day the American people are being made to realize the seriousness of this war, and the part that this government and her soldiers are to play in the final outcome. The Gerard picture brings home to the people the conditions that prevailed in Germany and that forced the United States government and the other allies into war with that country.

The whole series of incidents, the plot and intrigue, the broken promises, the deliberate disregard of all the rights of a friendly nation in the insane desire of the Hohenzollern family to rule the world is clearly shown in this wonderfully vivid picture.

Grauman's.

Thoroughly imbued with that predominating spirit of youth which, when once aroused, knows no bounds nor limits, Charles Ray, in "His Own Home Town," at Grauman's this week, exercises a never-tiring willingness to "try again" in his supreme effort to rouse himself from the environment of the ne'er-do-well to him of more deserving proportions. As Jimmy Duncan, Ray's work is splendidly alert and truly characteristic of the role in which he is cast. The story, in short, is built about a nest of crooked politicians, one of whom is Jimmy's father. Jimmy, through the home organ, the Chronicle, finally puts an end to the clique and rid the town of Warchester of this terrific political disease.

Quinn's Rialto.

Mabel Normand, in Porter Emerson Brown's comedy drama of American men and women, especially of American men in the making at the big Plattsburg training camp, runs merrily along at Quinn's Rialto. Mabel Normand has been given a role that would take all of any star's abilities and test them to the breaking point, especially as there is quite a demand on the dramatic talent of the leading actress; but the little comedienne comes through splendidly and has delighted all audiences of the Rialto. Beautiful silhouettes and lighting of more than ordinary quality make "Joan of Plattsburg" especially attractive to the art lover.

Clune's Broadway.

William S. Hart, regarded as one of the foremost delineators of Western roles, is attracting large crowds at Clune's Broadway this week, where he is appearing in his latest photo production, "The Tiger Man." This is in many respects one of the most remarkable pictures in which Hart ever has appeared. In his portrayal of Hawk Parsons, the fierce bandit, he has presented a new and attractive type of man—the man whose soul, deadened by crime, is strangely regenerated through the refining influence of a woman. Commencing Sunday afternoon, dainty Ann Pennington of Ziegfeld Follies fame will be seen in her latest comedy photoplay, "Sunshine Nan." Miss Pennington is a very clever little artist and this picture should prove most interesting.

Alhambra.

Another three-feature bill is to be shown at the Alhambra, beginning Sunday. Heading the programme is the latest of Henry Lehrman's marvelous "lion" comedies, entitled "Wild Women and Tame Lions," and it is promised that nothing funnier or more thrilling has even been flashed on a picture screen. Virginia Pearson, in a thrilling, timely drama laid in Russia during the reign of the Czar and following the downfall of his rule, is the photoplay feature. It is called "The Firebrand" and has been pronounced a real sensation by all who have viewed it at advance showings. A new installment of the interesting official war films entitled "Britain's Bulwarks" is the third feature of the new programme. "Brave and Bold," George Walsh's latest "speed" comedy romance, is thrilling the audiences at the Alhambra this week.

Superba.

Decoration Day will be fittingly observed at the Superba, for the stage of that picture playhouse will be artistically decorated, not with cut flowers, but with that flower of the films, Mae Murray, who is the star of this week's Universal special feature production, "The Bride's Awakening." This will be Miss Murray's first personal appearance in many moons, as she has been working both day and night on her super-productions at Universal City, under the personal supervision of Robert Z. Leonard. It is planned to have Mr. Leonard appear with her. The latter is well known in the dramatic world, having been a matinee idol with the old Ferris Hartman company at the Grand Operahouse a few years ago. Miss Murray will appear at 9:45 p.m.

Riviera.

Under the spreading chestnut tree William Desmond stands. He is a fighting smithy with his weapon in his hands; and with that blacksmith hammer he holds the crowd at bay when they try to stone the sweetheart whom the town dude led astray. "Handsome Bill" has doffed his dress suit, and appears in rustic guise, but clothes can't make much difference—what the girls love is those eyes. He will be at the Riviera as "Old Hartwell's Cub," this week. Coming next, "High Stakes," with J. Barney Sherry, sly and sleek.

Symphony.

Bessie Barriscale in "Blindfolded," at the Symphony this week, goes the famous Jimmy Valentine one better. Jimmy had to manicure his nails with a sheet of sandpaper before he could properly crack a crib. Bessie as Peggy, the old crook's daughter, makes a professional diagnosis with a stethoscope as she twirls the safe knob, and presto!—the door swings open with the aid of nothing more explosive than a smothered "damn" from the impatient and waiting "gang." Next week five reels of Charlie Chaplin in a film absurdity composed of the funniest incidents taken from the funniest of his pictures will show at the Symphony. Of course, the beloved and laughable shoes, hat, cane, "and everything," will be in evidence.

Garrick.

At present the smiling Doug Fairbanks is straining the Garrick screen to its utmost with his rollicking capers and spreading grin in "The Matrimaniac." In this picture Constance Talmadge appears in support of "Old Doc Cheerful." It was filmed soon after her first success in "Intolerance," and as the athletic Doug's sweetheart she amply fulfilled the promise of the mountain girl. Next week Charles Chaplin appears in "The Pawnshop" and "The Cure," two of his famous "scream" comedies. No one should fail to see Charlie using the three golden balls of Mine Unkie for an impromptu game of billiards with a broomstick as cue, or his endeavors to get cured from what appears a most comic malady by taking "the baths."

Palace.

The fallacy that confuses ignorance with innocence in the education of young girls is exploded in the seven-reel Ivan production, "Enlighten Thy Daughter," at the Palace next week. A strong charge of moral nitroglycerine is used, and the result is a film that has an enormous appeal wherever shown. This week Douglas Fairbanks makes things hot for everyone, including himself, when as "Mr. Fix-It," he endeavors to promulgate his genial, but sometimes impractical, policy of "everybody happy." William S. Hart is also on this week's bill in "Taming the Four-Flusher," in one of the most virile of his western parts.

Miller's.

"The Model's Confession," an exquisitely-staged production, which brings beautiful Mary MacLaren back to the screen after a year's absence, is the photoplay feature to be shown at Miller's for a week, beginning next Sunday. Miss MacLaren first gained fame as the star of "Shoes," "Saving the Family Name" and "Idle Wives," which were all produced by Lois Weber; and her new pictures, which have all been booked for Miller's, are made under the supervision of that other famous woman director, Ida May Parks. "True Blue," William Farnum's latest, and beyond any doubt his finest, comedy drama, is the attraction which is pleasing large crowds this week.

De Luxe.

The programme for the remainder of this week includes Bessie Barriscale in "Blindfolded," Thursday and Friday; on Saturday, Bryant Washburn, in "Twenty-One," by George Randolph Chester. This is said to be Washburn's best picture, which was written especially for him by the noted author.

LOTS IN A NAME.

As one looks upon the yellow hills of Southern California at this time of the year one can but regret that the bright mustard bloom must forever be associated with the idea of salad. If our wild mustard could only be rechristened and called Old Gold its glory would be heralded to the ends of the earth.

NAMING THE BOYS.

During the Spanish-American War a young soldier who also became a proud father named his baby son after William McKinley, who was then President. The other day a French general called this William McKinley Hurley from the ranks of his comrades on a foreign field and pinned the croix de guerre to his youthful breast. The boys are growing fast. The William McKinley Smiths are joining the Grover Cleveland Smiths in the trenches and may be shortly joined by the Theodore Roosevelt Smiths. It is greatly to be hoped that the airlfe will be over before the William Taft Smiths and Woodrow Wilson Smiths are ripe for the service, but they will be there if the summons comes.

AFTER MANY DAYS.

For a number of years before the war the tide of European emigration to the United States ran high, but it never reached the height of the American bookings for Europe during the last thirty days. Secretary Baker reported to Congress that more than 200,000 American Liberty Troops have embarked for France since May 1. Certainly Lafayette and the other French patriots cast their bread on the waters when they enlisted in the struggle for America's freedom. The return after many days almost staggers belief. So hidden are the decrees of Fate that not one of those early French patriots dreamed that he was fighting for the future liberation of French soil when he drew his sword for American liberty.

A UNIVERSAL LAW.

According to statistics more than 2000 motorists in this country were killed during 1916 because they failed to stop, look and listen when approaching grade crossings. The scriptural text, "To him that hath not shall be taken away even that which he seemeth to have," holds good under all circumstances and in every realm of thought and action in life. It is not only a scriptural warning, it is a universal law. Leaving the justice of such a law entirely out of the question, it is a well-known fact that failure to legitimately use any power—whether it be money, will or intelligence—inevitably results in the loss of that power. The man who does not use every sense and sensibility given him for his protection is likely to be deprived of all his senses.

THE ONE UNION.

An effort is being made to unionize the public-school teachers in Los Angeles and to affiliate them with the American Federation of Labor. The plan will not prevail. Every loyal teacher of this city—and they are all loyal, it is to be hoped—will look upon anyone who approaches them with such a proposition as an enemy to the government. Unionism today means strikes, picketing, boycotts and violence, and the present is no time for the forming of organizations which are likely to bring on such conditions. Today there is only one union to which every laborer and every capitalist should belong, and that is the union of every individual of the several States for the purpose of winning the great battle for liberty and righteousness and bringing permanent peace to a war-sick world.

STRIKING THE KEYNOTE.

One of the interesting announcements made by Lloyd George in his Edinburgh speech was that the appeals of certain statesmen of the Central Powers were politely answered by the British government, but the response to Great Britain's answer was the roaring of German cannon. "It was not because the German and Austrian statesmen were deliberately deceiving us," said the Premier, "but because those diplomats did not understand how they were being used by their military chieftains." In that statement lies the key to the whole trouble. There are doubtless good men in both Germany and Austria, as well as in England and the United States, who desire an honorable peace, but the Prussian military machine does not want peace and has never wanted it. The Prussian tyrants want war. They are hungry for blood and conquest. War and blood they shall have—but not conquest—as long as there is left a single nation whose standard is freedom, based upon justice.

There are so many different kinds of bread in the roster of substitutes that a well-bred man must rise early to assimilate them.

Instead of sending candy and gewgaws to the soldiers in France, why not send them money to do with as they please? It would be much more acceptable.

Tractors are being used everywhere in California farm work, but they would be more popular with the women folks if there was a canopy top on them.

WHAT LOYALTY IS.

Since America entered the war that good old word "loyalty" has seen much hard service behind the firing lines. In his message of less than two hundred words to the foreign-born the other day the President used it three times. In the oratory that marked the celebration of Empire Day and the Day of Italy in this city last week "loyalty" punctuated every second paragraph. In the police reporter's accounts of our war squad's doings "loyalty" and "disloyalty" form the beginning, the middle and the conclusion of the story. In the Americanization campaign in which our good Franco-American citizen, L. N. Brunswig, is taking a directing part, "loyalty" is the note struck with persistent and compelling force.

A good many different sorts of persons and of deeds at one time and another have been called "loyal." As honor is said to be possible among thieves, so robbers have been dubbed loyal to their band, and mischievous boys to the comrades whose pranks they applaud and whose names they refuse to tell teacher. Nor is there any doubt that these examples of loyalty involve some morally good features.

But loyalty in the life of a mature and reasoned person is that which makes him give himself to the active service of A CAUSE. This cause is one which the loyal person regards as something beyond his private self, as vaster and worthier than any of his private interests. Such loyalty, however, is not mere self-forgetfulness; it is self-devotion. A person cannot devote himself unless he is aware of himself. The loyal person lives intensely, vigorously, personally; and over against this natural self is his CAUSE—his side in a game, his family, his country in danger, the good of humanity.

Loyalty is essentially AN ACTIVE VIRTUE. It involves manifold sentiments—love, good-will, earnestness; BUT IT IS COMPLETE ONLY IN MOTOR TERMS, NEVER IN MERELY SENTIMENTAL TERMS. As someone has said, "It is useless to call one's feelings loyal unless one's muscles somehow express this loyalty." Only deeds can accomplish this result. Loyal sentiments, if left to themselves, would merely emphasize the contrast without giving life any acceptable unity. To paraphrase an old adage, loyal is that loyally does.

Accepting this definition, can we admit that such an individual as a loyal pacifist can exist in a time of war when the nation's safety is at stake. We have had protestations of loyalty in Los Angeles from persons who have excused their inaction on the ground of opposition to all war. Their "sentiments" to the nation are loyal, they tell us, but they cannot buy Liberty Bonds and Thrift Stamps because doing so would help to finance murder. Such professed loyalty is not loyalty at all. For, including, as it does, the inner virtues which the sentiments afford, loyalty always must have its physical expression. ONE IS LOYAL THROUGH HIS DEED AND NOT OTHERWISE.

It is difficult to have patience with persons whose theories always are evolved from the cold recesses above the shirt collar. That form of reasoning which omits the dictates of a healthy heart never attains a tenable conclusion. The person who is glad enough to live in a free country, but is unwilling to fight to preserve it for living in, is about as loyal as the man who would insist on a closed shop before driving a rivet to help send food to his brothers who are risking death for him.

As loyalty is central as a moral principle, it is a common good of mankind. To this statement the seeming anomaly may be raised that groups of men whose lives are as loyal as they appear to know how to make them lead often very mischievous lives. This, however, is because they are blind to what the principle of loyalty actually requires. When, in such cases, loyalty has led men into crimes, as in Germany, it has done so not because they were loyal, but because they were blind to what their loyalty signified. In other words, loyalty, though a common good, is only so in respect to morally-trained mankind.

Loyalty infers fair play. How, then, can we respect the loyalty of the Hun, when he does not play the game, when he treats solemn obligations as scraps to be tossed to the wind; when he makes noncombatants the victims of his frightfulness; when he destroys for the pure devilry of destruction? Such loyalty cannot be loyalty, for it is not being loyal to loyalty.

To repeat: loyalty means to have a cause that is an honest cause; to give oneself over to it actively, whole-heartedly, PRACTICALLY. The cause of the nation at the present time is to win the war. Unless we are loyal to that cause we are not loyal.

WOOLWINE TALKS UP.

It is to be regretted that the first note of hope for the taxpayers of California came from a Democratic candidate; but perhaps its sounding may stimulate the courage of other ambitious statesmen to the point where they can defy the forces of graft and greed which have made the name of the State a byword for extravagance and official oppression.

It was Thomas Lee Woolwine who planted himself squarely on his hind legs and made these cheerful remarks to a large body of approving listeners:

"If I am elected Governor of this State I shall use every power at my command to abolish all unnecessary commissions; to reduce in number the necessary commissions by a process of consolidation and coordination and to strip such as remain of all dead and useless timber, and to reduce the expense of maintaining the same to the last degree."

If these words are given with a punch they furnish the most inspiring message that has come to the ears of the citizens of California for a decade. If Bro. Woolwine will go further and promise that the commissions shall not be the arbiters of their own fate we should feel still more encouraged. Every commissioner is prepared to assert the importance of his own commission, and a ring of self-defense has been thus created that encircles the State. It is no easy task to break through this ring, and an executive even with the most wholesome of intentions is like to find himself against a barrier of impregnable steel.

It is harder to drive the German army out of its trenches than it is to drive a California politician from his job.

Commissioners must not sit as jurors on their own cases. If the eager Mr. Woolwine will take our word for it thirty-nine of the forty commissions are not only unnecessary, but the health, the appetite, the business, the morals and the service of the State would positively be bettered by their abolishment.

It is superfluous for any political trencherman to arise and say "Pish!" or "Tush!" for we can prove it. If Andrew Carnegie took a posthole-digger and bored a hole in the Pacific Ocean in which to fling ten million dollars the law would step in and name a conservator for him.

The State of California needs a guardian. The State of California has been throwing millions away to the worse than useless end of maintaining a guild of greed in political places. It is like hiring pirates to scuttle one's own ship.

Other States have demonstrated that commissions can not only be consolidated, but can be dispensed with. They can not only be dispensed with, but the public service be improved and the public purse fattened.

We have never seriously considered Thomas Lee Woolwine as a gubernatorial probability. Even as a possibility we never had him in the king row, but we thank him heartily for the bravery and honor of his words. If convinced that he could convert them into deeds the people might take a chance on him. Meanwhile the people also wish that some able and honorable Southern California Republican might be as equally frank and outspoken in his wish to relieve the State of a burden that is becoming greater than it can bear.

Why not make this economy a war measure?

COST OF THE DRINK EVIL.

With that thrift which is a dominant characteristic of New England, Massachusetts is placing her support of prohibition upon a business basis. Mr. Robert W. Kelso, secretary of the State Board of Charities, in a report presented to a special conference of the League for Preventive Work, says: "It is possible to indicate certain definite outlays which are indisputably the result of drink."

He begins with the policing of the 354 towns and cities in the State of Massachusetts. In 1915 it cost $6,356,800. The total number of arrests that year for all causes was 179,010; of these 106,146, or 59 per cent. of the total, were for drunkenness. "If one were to divide the expense of the department," he says, "on the basis of the arrests made, therefore, over half of all the activities of our police departments would have to be assigned to this particular problem; and we should have something like $3,178,400 paid out by the public for policing made necessary by the drink habit.

Then comes liquor's share of court expenses. In 1915 criminal prosecutions were begun in the lower courts in 102,919 cases of drunkenness and in 1633 other cases relating to liquor laws. This was a total of 70 per cent. of all the criminal cases begun. The total net expenditure of the district and police courts was $362,091.57. Mr. Kelso charges liquor with 50 per cent., or $181,045.78.

In the jails and houses of correction in 1916, being maintained at public expense, were 39,903 persons, about 65 per cent. of them there for drunkenness. Mr. Kelso puts down one-half, or $406,735.29, on liquor's bill.

Next is the State farm, 50 per cent. of whose inmates are there for drunkenness. In 1916 it cost $385,723.63; 50 per cent. is $192,861.81.

The maintenance for Norfolk State Hospital, mostly for rehabilitating such cases, adds an item of $195,435.85.

Last year, say the authorities, 16.76 of all the insane persons supported at the expense of the State were insane as a result of alcoholic intemperance. Thirteen institutions are maintained; the net expense last year was $3,541,246.80. Sixteen per cent. would be $566,599.80.

After this come the institutions for juvenile delinquents and truants, and the State minor wards under the custody of the board of which Mr. Kelso is secretary. One-fourth to one-third of all the cases under care, he says, have come to their condition because of bad environment, the chief factor in which has been drink. One-fourth of last year's maintenance cost would be $314,169.79.

On the question of poor relief Mr. Kelso says he understates the case when he charges only one-fourth of the bill for public charity to drink. This item is $1,200,650.28.

These make a total of $6,235,898.80. The total amount received in license fees by the cities and towns of Massachusetts in 1916 was $3,453,321.84. The difference, $2,782,576.77, is the net cost of the liquor traffic to the State.

The man who claims that his liberties are taken away when he is deprived by law of the privilege of getting drunk at his own expense presents a one-legged syllogism, the minor proposition of which is lacking. He gets drunk largely at the expense of the taxpayers of the community in which he lives.

The idea that man can live unto himself alone is a mistake; he belongs to a church of humanity which admits of no separation; he is on a single track which must be run upon at such a rate of speed that he will not collide with others. We are all drops in an ocean whose every wave communicates from Labrador to the farther Indies. We are not alone and cannot live alone.

RIPPLING RHYMES.

WINNING THE WAR.

The things I do to win the war are things I always did abhor. So give me credit, I beseech, for loyalty that is a peach. I'd like to mount a foaming steed and charge the foe at frightful speed. I'd like to ride an aeroplane above the clouds that send the rain, above the forest and the hill, and drop some bombs on Kaiser Bill. I'd like to walk a cruiser's deck 'mid scenes of battle and of wreck. But all such things are barred to me, I may not fight, on land or sea, I may not garner gory sheaves, because I'm fat and have the heaves. And so I'm doing things I hate, that I may keep my record straight. I'm digging soil and sowing seeds and pruning vines and hoeing weeds. I till the garden and repeat, and there are sandburs in my feet; that valued foodstuffs be supplied, I gather thistles in my hide; I grow the bean and marrowfat; I'll win the war or break a slat. I hope when history is writ, and warriors who did their bit are loaded with the heroes' bays, there'll be some mention of the jays who had to do their stunt at home and grow things in the fertile loam. I'm doomed to raise my sparrowgrass while younger men to battle pass, so I will do it with a will and hoe my beets with wondrous skill, and raise fresh rhubarb by the keg; I'll win the war or break a leg. WALT MASON.

CALIFORNIA WOMEN.

California women vote in almost equal numbers with men; they serve on juries, hold important positions on State and county commissions, are presiding as judges upon the bench, and in almost every instance men commend them for their intelligent patience and their loyal devotion to the duties they are called upon to discharge. These civic duties have been but a small part of the work of women of California, for here, as in every State in the Union, women have organized themselves as an army working for the Red Cross.

Since the day America entered the war women have devoted their time and responded with their money in every emergency. They have knitted and sewed hundreds of thousands of garments for our allies and our boys "over there," and they have invested in Liberty Bonds other millions of dollars. All these things and more women have done, are doing and will continue to do until barbarity has been whipped from the world and peace with victory established.—[Editor New American Woman.

EAGLES OF THE DAWN.

BY HOWARD WILSON.

They cleave and cling to the crippled wing
And they silence the vulture's cry;
They dance in the sun o'er the path of the Hun,
Like the flames of God they fly.
They mock the doom of the cannon's boom
And they brave the Hun's red hate;
They fly and fight for the law of right,
And the eagle knows his mate.

No deed of shame mars the eagle's name
As he swoops down the primrose sky;
He seeks his prey by the light of day
And he hunts that the Hun may die.
And die he must if the law is just
That the wolf shall beget his own,
For kultured Hun and the wolf are one
And he stalks through the world alone.

Ay, soon or late on the looms of fate
Shall be woven the word of doom,
For dust to dust is the law of lust,
And the false for the true makes room.
The wolf will slay and the vulture prey
Till the eagles of dawn arise,
And God shall drive all the vultured five
From the earth and the primrose skies.

But what we'd

A Coming Statesiady.

"What's the matter, Margaret?" asked Aunt Emilie of her 3-year-old niece, who was crying bitterly.

"S-somfin dwedful h-happened," sobbed Margaret.

"Well, what was it, darling?" queried Aunt Emilie anxiously.

"My dollie dot away f'tum me an' b-bowked a d-dish in the p-antwy," she sobbed.

Why Nobody Saw It.

In one Kansas town, says Capper's Weekly, they are still looking for someone who saw the Liberty Loan parade, but haven't found him yet, for every man, woman and child in the community was in the procession.

The Governor's Shirt.

Commenting on the fact that Gov. Dorsey has sent one of his shirts to an Iowa girl to be made into a kitchen apron and sold at auction for the benefit of the Red Cross, the Dubiin Courier-Herald says: "Evidently cooks and housewives have very little regard for a man's shirt when they will take it and turn it into a kitchen apron." Pshaw! Women have been known to mop up the floor with a shirt without going to the trouble of taking the man out of it. Incidentally, that particular Iowa Red Cross chapter is collecting shirt tails of famous men for auction purposes. Hardwick's chance to get in the game does not rest on the "famous man" condition.—[Savannah News.

SAILOR BOY'S VOCABULARY.

Anna Steese Richardson in "Soldiers All" in the June Woman's Home Companion says:

"The sailor lad has a vocabulary quite his own, by the way. Recruits are 'reerets;' later, as common seamen, they are 'gobs.' Food is 'chow,' and ketchup is 'red lead.' 'Binnacle list' means the sick list. The guardhouse is called a 'brig.' Instead of reveille he says 'rise and shine,' and when he tires of noise he calls out 'pipe down.' 'Leave' for the army is 'liberty' for the navy. Two oats they have named 'Pay Day' and 'Extra Duty.' It is not hard to guess which of the two felines is more popular."

THINGS TO WORRY ABOUT.

In Collier vs. State, 20 Ark., the court held that where jurors, having retired to consider a verdict and one of them is unable to carry the bass when they start singing, it is not ground for a new trial if a man who is not a member of the jury joins them and leads them in singing.

Bad Luck and Bad Money Are Hard to Get Rid Of.—[Minneapolis Tribune.

Chinese Tree Is Ill.

One of the Chinese trees that Li Hung Chang, the Chinese statesman and diplomat, brought all the way from China to plant under the shadow of the tomb of Gen. Grant in New York, as a tribute to the American soldier whose character and achievements the Chinese admired greatly, is dying slowly, although it has grown to rugged size in its twenty-two years' life in a strange climate. Foresters of the park department are trying to renew the life of the tree because of the sentiment attached to it.

When Li Hung Chang visited the tomb of Gen. Grant on his tour of the world in 1896 he expressed a desire to plant two immortal trees north of the mausoleum. Small shoots had been brought from China. After the ceremonies a tablet in English and Chinese was placed near the trees and an iron fence was erected around the small shoots to prevent injury to them. The Ginjko tree flourished and is now about twenty feet high, and attracts much attention by its luxurious and peculiar-shaped leaves. The other tree, known as a Chinese bladder nut, or the Koelrenteria Paniculator, also flourished until this season.—[Baltimore Star.

Don't cackle yet, you proclamans!

This drive will end like the others.

God still moves in a mysterious way.

The German butchers are spilling their own blood.

Thank heaven, America will help save Paris!

The pig pen and the sword are both doing a lot of business.

Pointer for the police: The fine for a gun toter is in France, near the battle front.

How is it figured out that an increase in the price of wheat will decrease the yield?

Why punish members of the I. W. W. with a coat of tar and feathers? Baths would be more to the point.

There must be a final triumph of might or right in this war. That is the issue. No one thinks otherwise.

Statistics show that the third Liberty Loan was sold, not underwritten—that is, the people put up the money, not the banks. Glory in it.

Finland has been absorbed by Germany. But it will be observed that the absorbing power of the Kaiser is confined strictly to title notions.

Why is it that nobody except bicycle riders take more than a languid interest in the collision of two motorcycles? Are they taboo in certain circles.

Two years ago W. J. Bryan said that "love will win the war." But bullets and guns and not love are trumps on the Flanders and Picardy fronts.

You have been kicking on some of the substitutes; but, honestly, don't you feel just as well as if you had used the original foods? And in addition you have been helping the country.

And now the food conservers declare that seaweed is palatable and its use as a food ought to be encouraged. This will be easy for the folks who have heretofore lived on spaghetti.

It is now claimed that baldness is caused from trouble with the teeth. According to that, if one's hair begins to come out, he ought to have his teeth pulled. It sounds like an advertisement for a dentist.

Col. George Harvey has nominated Secretary Daniels as being the best head of the Navy Department since the days of W. C. Whitney. It will soon be Secretary Baker's turn for a compliment.

The statement of Secretary Baker that 200,000 American soldiers were sent overseas in May and that 300,000 will follow in June is an indication of what the troops of the Kaiser must tackle in the near future. The information is most heartening.

Germany will not get very far with a boycott of trade after the war. It might be well enough for her to arrange to play in her own back yard for some time after. There will be precious few nations that will care to have anything to do with her.

The Democrats of Minnesota have indorsed the Senatorial candidacy of Hon. Knute Nelson on "patriotic grounds." As they had about as much chance defeating the old man as the Kaiser has of winning the war, their political immolation for the altar of their country is as splendid as it might be.

When the boy is old enough to join the colors, everybody in the house from "dad" down is proud. They kiss him good-bye with a smile, repeating the lines of Lowell's fellow on the building of the ship: "Our hearts, our hopes, are all with thee—our hearts, our hopes, our prayers, our tears, are all with thee—are all with thee."

The example set Americans in their liberal response to the Red Cross fund was first given by Florence Nightingale, who also established a hospital for the care of the wounded in the war in the Crimea in the autumn of 1854. She reached Scutari ten days after the battle of Balaklava and one day before the battle of Inkerman. It is true that time the English government had not given much consideration to the medical department or the nurses' corps of its armed forces. She was the angel of the battlefield and her patriotic efforts blossomed into the Red Cross movement of today.

THE CALL.

Hark, 'tis the voice of the bugle!
Hark, 'tis the roll of the drum!
Sounding the call of the nations—
"Come, boys, come!"
Strike for the faith of your fathers!
Sailors and soldiers true!
Down with the emblem of terror!
Up with the Red, White and Blue!
Are you ready, boys, ready?
Then steady, boys, steady!
God speed the right to win the fight!
Steady, boys, steady!

"Freedom and peace," sings the bugle;
"Help for the weak," rolls the drum.
High beats the heart of Columbia!
"Come, boys, come!"
Liberty calls, you and crowns
Heroes and patriots, too;
Down with the foe of the free world!
Up with the Red, White and Blue!
Are you ready, boys, ready?
Then steady, boys, steady!
God speed the right to win the fight!
Steady, boys, steady!

SERVICE FLAG UNFURLS TODAY

Long Beach to Hold Appropriate Exercises.

Substitute Eggs not Real Hen Fruit, Declared.

Geisler Pleads Guilty, Sentence is Suspended.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LONG BEACH, May 29.—This city's municipal service banner, representing the 1543 men and women from Long Beach that have answered the call to the colors, will be unfurled and dedicated with appropriate exercises tomorrow morning.

The banner will be hung over the entrance to the Pine-avenue pleasure pier. Following the playing of the "Star Spangled Banner" by the municipal band, W. B. McQueen, vice-president of the Chamber of Commerce, will present the flag to Mayor William T. Lisenby, who will accept it in behalf of the city. While the banner is being unfurled the band will play the Allied national hymns. Former Mayor Louis N. Ralston and J. Wesley Nealy will deliver short patriotic addresses.

BOGUS EGGS.

An egg is not an egg when sold in a powdered form, a chemical analysis of which reveals that the package variety is composed chiefly of cornstarch and artificial coloring. Justice of the Peace W. S. Gordon today in the case of Paul Geisler, charged with violating the pure food laws of the nation by selling an alleged substitute for real eggs. The judge expressed the opinion that such a concoction could in no way be classed with the hen fruit produced by the barnyard fowl, as alleged to have been represented by Geisler to the government inspector who purchased a package of the powder.

Geisler pleaded guilty to violating the pure food laws, and was given a suspended ten-day jail sentence, leniency being shown, it is said, because the merchant was believed to be ignorant of the ingredients of the powdered product.

HENRY HOLT SEEKS TO RECOVER MONEY INVESTED IN MEIGS PROJECT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA BARBARA, May 29.—Henry Holt, 92 year-old pioneer resident of Foxen Canyon, this county, brings an action here today to recover $20,000 from F. M. Meigs, president of the Consolidated Chemical Company of San Francisco, and a suit makes public a maze of involved finance, which, it is claimed, has brought ruin to a number of investors.

F. M. Meigs resides in Oakland. He organized a company to finance the development of an immense oil lake in San Luis Obispo county. Expensive machinery is necessary to make the deposit, which runs many thousands of acres, of commercial value. Holt, who is a wealthy man, complains that he loaned $9000 to Meigs's credit at a local bank, and $21,000 was banked in the name of U. Dardi, the bank's assistant. He claims the financial condition of the company was misrepresented.

Mrs. Lillian Beale, wealthy woman of Montecito, also sues Meigs to recover on a $5000 note. Peverel Meigs, prominent Santa Barbara resident, sues to foreclose on the soda mine. The latter, it is no relation to F. M. Meigs, but he has lost $30,000 in the mining concern.

OFFICER'S SON HONORED.

Charles R. Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Smith and grandson of Police Sergeant R. D. Smith, the old-time officer in the county by point of service, has been nominated by Senator H. M. Johnson for Annapolis Naval Academy, and leaves June 15 for the examinations. He is 18, a native son, graduated from the Local High School last June. He also passed all examinations for the West Point and was appointed by Congressman Hayes for the military school when he received his Annapolis appointment.

DIVERTING COLORADO TO IMPERIAL VALLEY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

EL CENTRO, May 28.—Announcing that 5701 feet of water had been diverted through the new $300,000 Rockwood intake gate on the Colorado River for Imperial Valley farms, General Manager C. K. Clarke of the Imperial Irrigation district pronounces the new gate, used for the first time, a success. The new structure is so arranged that only the "top of the river" is diverted into the Imperial system, excluding the sand and heavy silt which have in times past proved a problem for the district to wrestle with. It is also large enough to turn the entire river into the main canal at low stages of the Colorado.

Engineer Clarke states that the valley is using more water than ever before and 1500 feet more than at this time last year. Ranchers are seeding an immense acreage of corn and cotton, earlier than usual because of the warm weather.

The Colorado River rose three feet last week, and increased in volume more than 15,000 second feet at Yuma. It is believed that the annual rise of the river is now on, and the chief concern of the general manager is to keep intact the lines of defense against the river during flood stage. The peak of the flood last year came on July 15, and the water came within a foot of the top of the levees. The levee system, however, has been raised and strengthened during the past eight months, and, in view of reports that the snow on the upper reaches of the Colorado's tributaries is not as deep as last year, it is not believed there will be any danger from high water this year.

ALHAMBRA SCHOOLS WILL OUST GERMAN.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ALHAMBRA, May 29.—Following an argument that has been general for several months, the Alhambra school board has decided to discontinue teaching the German language in the Alhambra public schools. The existing classes will continue until the end of this school year, but none will be started next term. There has been considerable discussion regarding the teaching of German and the sentiment of the city is almost unanimous against it. Those who favored the language for its alleged scientific and educational value, have finally come to realize that the barbarianism of the race offsets any value the teaching has. The action of the school board has full support of the taxpayers.

ALHAMBRA TO HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

ALHAMBRA, May 29.—Memorial Day services will be held here at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at Holy Trinity Church. The service will be of humiliation and prayer as suggested by President Wilson's proclamation. As a special feature it is planned to call the roll of all men of the county who are at present in the country's service, whether at the front or in camp. When the names are called it is hoped to have a response from some member of the family or an intimate friend having knowledge of the welfare and whereabouts of the man whose name is called. Every one is urged to join the prayer for the safety of our soldiers and the success of our cause.

TELEPHONE SERVICE BAD, SAYS PORTER.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

RIVERSIDE, May 29.—The service of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, which consolidated its plant with that of the Home Telephone Company several months ago, is made the matter of complaint in a letter which Mayor Porter has addressed to C. F. Mason, division commercial superintendent, at Los Angeles.

The Mayor bases his charges of poor service on a provision of the company's franchise, which limits the time for answering line signals to 4.5 seconds. The time is frequently between 30 and 60 seconds, according to the Mayor's belief. At night, the Mayor asserts, the response of central is so slow that it often is impossible to get an operator without prolonged calling and waiting. He has requested that the service be made to comply with the franchise agreement.

HEARING BEFORE ENCELD.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BEAUMONT, May 29.—A hearing by Examiner Encell of the Railroad Commission was held here this week on application of the Riverside Gas and Power Company to discontinue service in this city and Banning. The case was taken under advisement. A practical gas man is at present considering taking over the plant with the financial assistance of local people. This will mean the resumption of gas service in the two hours which has been recently interrupted.

MANY VOLUNTARY PLEDGES.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

CLAREMONT, May 29.—"Over the top" with $800 to spare is the record here for the recent Red Cross drive. Claremont's quota was $2500, but without any canvass of the community pledges totaling $3300 were turned in at the banks.

MISTAKEN IDENTITY.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VISALIA, May 28.—Finger prints from the Tulare county records show that a man who was captured at Sacramento and who was identified as Tony Souza, an escaped convict from Folsom, was really Allisio Citti, a ranch hand. The latter has been released. Citti bore a remarkable resemblance to the photographs of Souza, a ranch hand of this district, who was sent up from here following his conviction on a charge of burglary.

ELKS TO SELL LOT; GOES TO RED CROSS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

GLENDALE, May 29.—A city lot, free of all incumbrance and valued at approximately $1500 has been donated to the Elks' Lodge here by Ezra Parker, the chronic "jiner" who is accused of joining the Red Cross at least once a week, promptly paying his initiation fee on each occasion. The lot is located in one of the best residence sections of Glendale, on Central avenue, near Doran street. A committee of Elks, consisting of Cameron D. Thom, Dr. J. L. Flint and Roy L. Kent, has been appointed to decide on what means will be most advantageous in disposing of the property for this patriotic cause.

"HIGH JINKS" DAY AT GLENDALE HIGH.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

GLENDALE, May 29.—Yesterday was "high jinks" day at the Glendale Union High School, when the whole school, from faculty to freshmen, indulged their humorous inclinations in costume and in deed. Parades were the order of the day, which culminated in a Thrift Stamp ball game between the men members of the faculty, arrayed in "middies" borrowed from the girls' gymnasium classes, and abbreviated baseball trousers loaned by the boys. The women teachers, led by Mrs. Dora Gibson, head of the music department, who beat the bass drum, furnished the weird band music for the occasion. Miss Elizabeth Lorimer, girls' athletic director, umpired the game.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

SANTA MONICA, May 29.—Santa Monica will observe Memorial Day tomorrow with the usual ceremonies on the municipal pier, with Dr. Lewis Thurber Guild, pastor of the East Hollywood Methodist Church, and editor of the Santa Monica Bay Outlook, as the orator of the day. Mayor S. L. Berkley, and the heads of G.A.R. and other patriotic organizations, will also be heard in the course of the exercises, which include the strewing of the water with flowers in honor of the naval dead, which this year will include a local hero, Sergt. Delbert E. Inglehart, who lost his life when the Tuscania was torpedoed. Preceding the exercises, a firing squad of the Home Guards will visit the cemetery to do honor to the veterans sleeping there, and the G.A.R. and allied organizations will put flowers on the graves. They will all then join in the parade of civic organizations from the City Hall to the municipal pier.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

BRAWLEY, May 28.—The first figs of the season in Imperial Valley, and that means the first figs in the United States, were sent to epicures of the East by express yesterday, from the orchard of Francis Heiny. They were of the Persian variety, and were fully ripened. There are 240 acres of figs near this city, and the crop will be moving to market at a lively rate next week.

HARBOR GOES OVER QUOTA 400 PER CENT.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

LOS ANGELES HARBOR, May 29.—The harbor district will oversubscribe its Red Cross quota 400 per cent, indications were here today. The original quota for the harbor was $6000, but so far more than $18,000 has been officially received and $10,000 more expected.

Final totals of what the district contributed are not expected to be reached until the end of the week. Ray Mitchell, chairman of the committee, received subscriptions of $538.93 today from the Lomita auxiliary. The E. K. Wood Lumber Company plant turned in $356.70 and the women's committee added $266 to its banner contributions.

One waterfront district made up of 100 people contributed a remarkable total of $900 with no large single subscriptions. Frank Van Camp of the Van Camp Cannery agreed to subscribe $2 for every dollar subscribed by his employees and when they subscribed $450 he put in $900 himself.

Several shipbuilding companies and other large plants have not yet turned in their subscriptions and the present total will be greatly increased. The Southwestern Shipbuilding Company donated seventeen carloads of wood to the Red Cross today and bids are being asked for the wood. Two substantial offers were received shortly after.

STEAM TRAINS ALMOST CURIOSITY, REDLANDS.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, May 29.—There will be but one steam train into Redlands a day after June 2, for after that date the Pacific Electric will handle practically all of the business out of Redlands. The taking off of the Southern Pacific trains and all Santa Fe trains but one will reduce the mail service in and out of the city, but it will be better in many ways.

The first mail coming to the city now comes about 11 o'clock on the Santa Fe. Hereafter there will be an early-morning mail from Los Angeles and coast points on the Pacific Electric, another on the noon Santa Fe train and a late mail also brought by the Pacific Electric. There will be three mails out, one early in the morning over the Pacific Electric, one at noon over the Santa Fe and one in the evening over the Pacific Electric.

Charles E. Rager, chief clerk of the railway mail service of this section, was here today and arranged the schedule.

REDLANDS PROPOSES MORAL ORDINANCE.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

REDLANDS, May 29.—Redlands may adopt an "anti-kissing" ordinance similar to that adopted by Riverside to protect the men of the service in the aviation camp near here. The matter is to be brought up at the next meeting of the City Trustees.

Dr. Millbank Johnson was here for the purpose of conferring with the City Trustees in regard to the ordinance and in regard to the establishment of a clinic in this country, where blood diseases among men in the service may be combatted. He urged that all hospitals be equipped to take care of such cases.

Dr. Johnson says that the purpose of the campaign and all ordinances is to protect the soldiers, and to do this the young man must be protected before he is drafted.

LOCAL DENTISTS AID SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

PERFORM MANY OPERATIONS ON MEN IN SERVICE FREE OF CHARGE.

That local dentists have performed free of charge for soldiers during the past two months, operations that would have taken the three men on the dental staff at Fort MacArthur eleven months, working ten hours a day, to do, if the work had been left to the camp doctors, was brought out in an address by Dr. J. Elton Lang to the members of the Southern California Dental Association yesterday.

This is work by the 235 local members of the Preparedness League of American Dentists, a national organization, and was done for drafted men, members of the Submarine Base and soldiers from Fort MacArthur. Six thousand separate operations were performed here gratis by the organization.

Yesterday was the third and last day of the twenty-first annual convention of the Southern California association. During the business meeting in the morning in the Dental College at the corner of Sixteenth and Los Angeles streets, Dr. H. P. Emis of San Diego spoke on "Dental Ethics," especially regarding relations towards patients and fellow practitioners, after which the following officers were elected: Dr. W. E. Sibley, president (for four years secretary;) Dr. H. P. Emis, first vice-president; Dr. Frank B. Damron of Long Beach, second vice-president; Dr. J. W. Neblett, the retiring president; Dr. Bert Boyd, and Dr. S. H. Houck, board of commissioners.

In the afternoon clinics were held: Dr. R. B. Griffen of Sacramento, on gold foil work; Dr. W. D. Crandall of this city, on the technique for large restoration work; Dr. B. B. McCollum and Dr. B. J. R. Engstrom of this city, jointly on removable bridge work; and a number of specimen cases on working in the mouth.

COMES EVERY SPRING.

George Rhoades, an itinerant deaf mute now under suspended sentence from the Police Court, was confronted with his subscription list of last year when he appeared before Judge McDonald yesterday. It is his habit to solicit the means by which he may secure an education. A year ago he was in the hands of the police, who kept the list of names he used at that time. When Rhoades returned he had another list headed with a number of fanciful benevolent names, and the two lists were exactly similar except for the real names that had been added.

Rhoades was escorted to a street car by Officer O'Rourke, and he was warned never to come back.

"Any way, don't use the same names for two years," said O'Rourke in pencil, paper and pantomime language.

"It does hurt the business, but I know them by heart. I've used them for ten years," wrote Rhoades.

GRIEF DARKENS HOME OF "LITTLE MOTHER."

LUKE LEDERMAN DIES AFTER PROTRACTED ILLNESS AT VENICE HOME.

[LOCAL CORRESPONDENCE.]

VENICE, May 29.—Luke Lederman, husband of "Little Mother" Lederman, who has proved herself a friend indeed to all the selected men from the bay district, died early today after a long illness at the family residence, No. 46 Thornton avenue, this city. Mr. Lederman was for twenty-two years a valued employee of the Hamburger store in Los Angeles, retiring from business after having reached the position of one of the buyers for that concern.

Although his devoted wife could not leave his bedside at the time the last contingent of selected men left the bay district, she managed to arrange for the usual gifts to the men of candy, cigarettes and other means for lightening the tedium of travel. For her great interest in looking after the wants of the men leaving here and also after they had reached camp, Mrs. Lederman is wearing a gold badge, as official "Little Mother," presented to her by the Santa Monica and Venice City Fathers, and the latter, as well as the members of the Santa Monica district draft board, have been among the first to offer her condolence in her grief.

Mr. Lederman was born in New York City in 1863. He has been a resident of this State for thirty-two years and of Venice for nine years. Before coming here he lived in Los Angeles for twenty-three years. He was an active member of both the Masonic and Elk lodges. Funeral services will be conducted on Friday at 2 o'clock from the Pierce Bros.' mortuary chapel in Los Angeles. Further details of the funeral are yet to be arranged.

PROGRAMME TODAY.

Judge Thomas White of Los Angeles will be the orator of the day for the Venice Memorial Day exercises, to be held in the Venice Auditorium. Attorney Frank Dominguez will also speak. The naval ritual service will be later conducted at the end of the Windward-avenue pier by the Kit Carson Post of the National Soldiers' Home. The Memorial Day parade will start at 10:15, with various civic organizations in line. In memory of the dead, flowers will be strewed upon the ocean by school children.

MRS. OFFER WISHES MAIDEN NAME BACK.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

SAN DIEGO, May 29.—Eunice Sanford Offer, wife of Carl Offer, now interned at Fort Douglass, Salt Lake City, wishes to resume her maiden name of James before the granting of her final decree of divorce from Offer. Mrs. Offer says that her husband was a German spy and is now interned, and that she is constantly annoyed and harassed by being watched as a spy, and for this reason she wishes to resume her maiden name.

Capt. Offer, who was prominent here during the exposition when he conducted an exhibit, was interned last summer. A few days later his wife filed suit for divorce on the grounds of cruelty.

WAR BULLETINS WEAKEN WALL STREET AT CLOSE.

Trading is Broad but Moderate, with Rail Issues Prominent.

NEW YORK, May 29.—Taking the impending holiday with its many possibilities regarding the foreign situation into account, traders proceeded warily in today's stock market, though seeming to favor the constructive side. Dealings were comparatively moderate, but more than ordinarily diversified.

Irregularity at the outset was succeeded by general strength which industrials shared in variable degree with equipments, coppers, shippings, oils, motors, fertilizers and numerous miscellaneous issues. Utilities were at all times heavy, however, on the suspension of the Interborough Consolidated dividend.

Rails soon assumed a prominent position, with indications of substantial absorption among secondary issues as well as high-grade shares. Gross advances ranged from 1½ to 8 points in transcontinentals, Reading, St. Paul, New Haven and New York Central.

Profit-taking and intermittent short offerings ensued on publication of the adverse French war bulletin after midday, causing reactions which cancelled the greater part of the morning's gains in industrials and equipments, rails also forfeiting much of their advantage. Sales amounted to 725,000 shares.

Further postponement of dividend action by the St. Paul directors occasioned no surprise, it being understood that the company has yet to consummate its contract with the Federal government.

All the Liberty issues, 3½'s excepted, made new low records, the first four's at 94.66, second four's at 94.02 and 4 1-4's at 97.06. The general bond list was irregular. Total sales (par value) aggregated $5,375,000.

United States bonds, old issues, were unchanged on call.

Poor old Art Griggs, he's slipping.

Art only batted .333 yesterday, his one hit driving in the run that won the game. Why, back here a few weeks ago Art was batting .500. Ain't it a terribul sight when a ball player starts to slip. He wasn't good enough for Vernon last year, but he's leading the Coast League this year by such a large margin that he doesn't even have to bother to run 'em out and if he can't make first base in a walk he's willing to let it go and get a real hit next time up.

Give and Take.

SEE AGREEMENT ON BILLBOARDS.

Majority of Council Now in Favor of Compromise.

Company Shows Willingness to Meet City Half Way.

Ordinance Wouldn't Stand a Court Test, 'Tis Said.

A meeting of the Public Welfare Committee of the Council will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to consider the compromise proposals submitted by the Foster & Kleiser Company in connection with the billboard ordinance.

Because of the absence of Councilman Cleaveland, President Farmer of the Council yesterday appointed Mr. Reeves to participate in the discussion, with Ralph Criswell, chairman of the committee, and Mr. True, the other member.

Very few complaints have been made by citizens against the proposed amendments to the ordinance, which will become effective next Saturday. While there are some persons who would like to have the billboards removed from the semi-business districts, it was stated by Councilmen yesterday that it appears to be the concensus of opinion that this feature of the ordinance should not be insisted upon, if its results will be detrimental to the residential districts.

The Foster & Kleiser Company, which recently purchased the interests of Thomas H. B. Varney, has promised to remove the boards from the residential sections if the Council will eliminate the provisions relating to semi-business districts which prohibits boards within fifty feet of any structure occupied as a residence. If these concessions are not granted, George W. Kleiser told the Council Tuesday that his concern would be forced to take the case into the courts.

That the ordinance will not stand a court test is the opinion of many leading attorneys, and the City Attorney has stated that if the Supreme Court should rule that the law is valid it would have to reverse itself.

In his statement to the Council Tuesday, Mr. Kleiser said that his company would not only go more than half way with the people in attempting to please them, but would make concessions that are not required by the ordinance. That he meant what he said was shown yesterday by a report made to the Council by the Board of Public Works as follows:

We are in receipt of the following report from the City Engineer:

"In the matter of the complaint made to the Honorable City Council by Herman H. Schrader regarding the billboard at No. 1772 West Adams street, and asking that we order the same removed, on account of it being unsightly and a detriment to this property, wish to state that although it was not within the province of our department to order same removed until June 1, 1918, when our billboard ordinance becomes effective, the attention of the owner of this board was called to this protest, and the board has been removed.

"Communication No. 980 (series 1918) is returned herewith."

The said report and the accompanying communication No. 980 are respectfully referred to your honorable body for your information.

Respectfully submitted,
BOARD OF PUBLIC WORKS,
City of Los Angeles, Cal.

TO ORGANIZE COUNTY.

Plan to be Outlined for Co-operation of Men and Women in Defense Council Work.

A plan for organization work in the county with a view to giving men an opportunity to join with the women in the county councils of defense will be suggested by a committee of four appointed by Judge Wellborn, chairman of the County Council of Defense, yesterday. This committee comprises F. B. Teuk, chairman; A. H. Van Cott, deputy District Attorney; J. O. Koepfli and David Lyons. Its appointment was the outcome of the discussion on Frederick Vining Fisher last Tuesday, apparently authorized by the State Council of Defense, to lecture, at a cost of $150 a day, to cover the expenses of himself and others engaged in creating enthusiasm in the various districts of the State.

The County Council of Defense balked at putting up this large amount of money, and decided to carry out the work among the communities by local men and women at approximately no expense.

FOR OPTOMETRISTS.

Twelfth Annual State Convention Will Open Here Today—Sessions to Last Through Saturday.

The twelfth annual convention of the California State Association of Optometrists will open tonight in the Walker Auditorium Building and continue tomorrow and Saturday. It is expected that there will be an attendance of from 150 to 200 delegates from all parts of the State.

The programme for this evening includes an address on thrift by Louis G. Guernsey of the National War Savings Committee; a lecture and demonstration of light and color by S. J. Keese; a patriotic reading by Miss Marjorie Bogle, and selections by the Los Angeles Quartette.

Friday morning the business meeting of the convention will be called to order by President Ernest A. Hutchinson, and on Saturday officers will be elected, the convention closing Saturday evening with a banquet at Christopher's.

JURY COMMISSIONER.

H. B. Blakeley, secretary of the Superior Courts, will be appointed jury commissioner by the judges in August. This office pays $100 a month, in addition to the salary of the secretary, and entails considerable work. But this year the judges, desiring to economize, will limit the funds to about five months instead of a year, thereby saving the county approximately $400.

Principals in Noted Nuptials.

To be married in Pasadena tomorrow.

At Pasadena.

DOUBLE WEDDING WILL BE BIG SOCIETY EVENT.

MARKING the most important social event of the year in the Crown City will be a double wedding ceremony tomorrow evening at the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, when Miss Georgianna Drummond marries Ensign Francis Shaw Baer and Miss Mildred Baer becomes the bride of Ensign Richard David Davis, Jr. At the same time three of Pasadena's most prominent families will be united, Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Davis being among the best-known residents of that city.

While the wedding will be military in all its aspects, Lee Davis, brother of Ensign Davis, and his best man, is a civilian. He wouldn't be, however, except for the fact that he is only 19 years old and a student of Occidental College. Lieut. G. R. O'Connor, U.S.N., with station at San Pedro, will be best man for Ensign Baer.

Rev. John Gilbert Bius, D.D., of the Pasadena Presbyterian Church, and Rev. George Davidson of St. John's Episcopal Church of Los Angeles will be the officiating clergymen. Miss Baer's maid of honor will be Miss Lubelle Boice, while Miss Barbara Scoville will serve as Miss Drummond's maid of honor. Their other attendants will be Misses Alverie Allen, Christine Wetherby, Frances Lunkenheimer and Helen Sherk.

Following the ceremony there will be a going-away party at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. John Willis Baer, parents of one of the brides and of one of the bridegrooms. Following the reception, Ensign and Mrs. Baer will go to San Francisco for their honeymoon, while Ensign and Mrs. Davis will leave for Annapolis. Miss Drummond's engagement to Ensign Baer was announced over a month ago by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison I. Drummond, and their wedding was then planned to take place on June 26.

To Make Ends Meet.

ONE CENT PER TRIP IS CARFARE RAISE SOUGHT.

Pacific Electric to Argue for Rate Increase on Horizontal Basis.

THE equivalent of 1 cent to a cent and a half per trip per passenger will be the average horizontal increase of present interurban railway fares argued for by the Pacific Electric before the State Railroad Commission in the hearing on the petition filed by the road yesterday. This average figure is arrived at by a comparison with the present revenue and that which will enable the road to meet its increased expenses, according to officials of the road.

The application is in general terms and states that complete schedules of proposed new rates will be filed within thirty days, so that public hearings may be held by the commission.

The announcement of proposed increase of rates is accompanied by a statement that useless, unprofitable service will be eliminated, in line with the policy of the national railroads under Director-General McAdoo.

The road, in its petition to the commission, asks "its passenger rates and fares set forth in said schedules be increased in such amounts, that, taking such increase, together with its present passenger revenue and revenue from all other sources together, there will be returned to your petitioner a revenue at least sufficient to meet the annual fixed charges.

"Your petitioner respectfully requests that it is in need of an advance on its passenger rates to enable it to meet the financial outlay incident to increased cost of operation by reason of increased wages to its employees already in operation, allotted and allowed and further increases under consideration, and increased cost of materials, equipment and increased taxes."

Just how the proposed increase will, if allowed by the Railroad Commission, affect John Jones of Pasadena, who now pays 15 cents for a single fare, 25 cents for a round trip, and 10 cents a ride if he buys a ten-ride ticket, will be known when the proposed new tariffs are completed and made public.

PRESENT REVENUE.

Officials of the company said yesterday that the average return to the road per passenger per trip is now 9 cents and under the proposed new tariffs, the average will be 10 cents or 10½ cents.

Speaking of the proposed increase, Paul Shoup, president of the Pacific Electric, said:

"We ask these increases in rates because of necessity. The Pacific Electric has not been earning its operating expenses, taxes and interest.

"The increased cost of operation (labor and material,) the jitney and the use of the privately owned automobiles on good roads have been the chief causes contributing to this result.

"The Pacific Electric depends upon passenger revenue for the major part of its living. Last year 73 per cent. of all its revenue came from passengers, who averaged 9 cents each. It had to give a great deal of service to get these earnings.

"Our operating expenses and taxes have greatly increased. The stockholders of the Pacific Electric have never received a dividend. In the meantime, in the business of serving this territory adequately every year we have been putting large sums of money in investments hardly ever less than seven figures. Part of this has been without any revenue return in sight, such as expenditures for street paving, wherein we have put millions in response to the public demand.

"After exercising all the economy possible no way can be found to maintain the transportation service essential to this city and the territories we serve except through increases in passenger fares. We ask nothing unreasonable. The increased cost to any one passenger on our lines will under any condition be a very modest amount. As soon as possible we will file schedule of the increases with the State Railroad Commission and they will then, of course, be subject to public hearing and scrutiny before action.

"Like any other business, the elements of cost cannot be overlooked in the sale of the product. The other electric lines in the State have all found themselves in the same condition. I understand that ten or eleven of them are now filing applications for increased fares. It may be of interest to know in this connection that we have less than 1½ cents per mile revenue from the passengers we carry and our individual commutation rates average probably not to exceed two-thirds of a cent a mile."

The Pacific Electric filed its annual report with the Railroad Commission last Saturday, stating that during the year ending December 31, 1917, it had increased its deficit $886,116, bringing its total deficit up to $6,170,843. The net revenue from operation for 1917 was $3,069,148, lacking $886,116 to pay the road's operating expenses.

The railway operating revenue for the year was $9,267,136.40, and operating expenses, $6,287,981.89. But the road owes a total of $47,717,962, and more money is needed to pay the interest on this debt.

CONSULS AT FUNERAL.

Many Attend Services for the Late Mrs. Sentous, Long a Resident of City.

Funeral services for Mrs. Theodora Casanova Sentous, mother of Louis Sentous, French Consular agent here, were conducted yesterday. After high mass at St. Thomas Church by Rev. Fr. Clifford, burial took place in Calvary Cemetery. Present were Consuls White, England; Oyama, Japan; Boberts, Costa Rica; Saenz, Cuba; Winsel, Belgium; Piuma, Italy; Salinas, Mexico.

More than a hundred floral pieces were sent by friends, including the members of the French Red Cross and the French Ladies' Aid Society, in which Mrs. Sentous was active.

Mrs. Sentous, who had been a resident of Los Angeles for over seventy years, was the mother of Mrs. Narcisse M. Sentous, Louis and Camille Sentous of this city, Mrs. Halois M. Lewis of Hollywood, Frank P. Sentous, now in the city and Mrs. W. L. Truitt of Eureka.

HE'S ABROAD, WIFE DIES.

Former Playground Man Cheers Soldiers in France While Children are Parentless.

While Charles F. Walsh makes life brighter for our soldiers in France, his wife lies dead in Chicago, and he may not know it until the war is over, or he returns. Little Jane, 5 years old, and Raymond, 9, have lost both daddy and mamma now. They are being taken care of by their aunt and uncle at No. 5503 Atlas street, Sierra Vista.

Last March Mr. Walsh gave up the Hazard playground, of which he had been in charge for two years, that he might enlist in physical training work with the Y.M.C.A. However, when he was assigned instead to conduct a canteen he accepted his orders cheerfully, and on March 30 as his transport swung from the pier at Hoboken, he waved farewell to his wife, apparently as cheerfully.

His wife, Mrs. Agnes Raymond Walsh, whom he had met in Chicago while both attended the Lewis Institute, stopped at Washington, D. C., on her way home to the children. There she took ill, and Tuesday her brother-in-law received word that she had died.

Mr. and Mrs. Walsh had lived here eight years. Mrs. Walsh will be buried at Evanston, Ill., where her mother, and her brothers and sisters live.

A NOTHER BLOW AT THE HUNS.

City to Use Sewage Tanks Patented in Germany and Save Big Sum.

Another blow was struck at the Huns, yesterday, when the Board of Public Works tentatively decided to install the German-patented Imhoff septic tanks at the harbor and throughout the city wherever they are needed.

By adopting this policy the city will save approximately $450,000 in patent fees. For months the Board of Public Works has been dickering with the Skeats concern, which has another type of tank, but has been unable to come to a satisfactory agreement. When it was called to the attention of the board that it may use the Imhoff tanks without securing the patent privilege it decided to do so.

More than a year ago the State Board of Health threatened to impose a penalty of $1000 per day upon Los Angeles for failing to install septic tanks. It was declared by the State board that the city is creating a nuisance by dumping its sewage into the ocean.

RECORD MARCH TO CITY TODAY.

circus grounds on Louisa street, the Chamber of Commerce "boosters" handed over the keys to the city and invited the 1000 men to partake of a cake, pie, orange and lemonade spread. The horses and mules were unharnessed, watered and fed. Then the soldiers unslung their kits, took out their coffee cups, and lined up two abreast for the feast.

SOME PIES.

Five hundred pies of all varieties and 200 cakes of many hues, baked and donated by the good housewives of Pomona, had been cut and placed on pasteboard pie-plates and spread out on tables in the factory of the Sunset Canning Company. Scores of high school girls took charge of the pie and cake serving.

At the same time "the Sallies," a bevy of society girls who co-operate with the Red Cross in Pomona, served lemonade from big pitchers. Two hundred gallons of lemonade were required. The lemons were donated by the various packing houses. The Pomona Fruit Growers' Exchange, contributed a dozen boxes of luscious oranges. These were handed to the soldiers along with the pie, cake and lemonade.

The call for boots and saddles was sounded at sharp noon and when the artillerymen moved out of Pomona at 12:15 o'clock the Boy Scouts marched ahead to police Second street to the western city limits.

Puente arranged a big public dance for the men last night and the entire countryside was invited to participate. As was the case at Corona, the Puente people were unable to supply partners for all the men, so a call was sent out to towns as far distant as Alhambra, Pomona and Ontario for young women to join in the frolic. Scores of girls journeyed to Puente by auto in order to take part in the gala event.

ARE "HE" MEN.

The One Hundred Forty-third Regiment is an organization good to look upon. It begins with good men and ends with good men. The personnel is of exceptionally high standard. Until a few months ago the organization was known as the First California Field Artillery.

As National Guardsmen the men in this organization have known each other for lengths of time varying from one to twenty-four years. Whole batteries of them served together in the border uprising at Nogales, something more than a year ago. Half a dozen or more served as volunteers in the Philippines, twenty years ago. They are veterans in the business, thoroughly acquainted with each other, and well seasoned in the matter of artillery maneuvers.

In the bunch one can find such men as Fred Thompson, the all-American athlete, who is now serving as chaplain of the regiment; Lieut.-Col. Fred Peterson, chief of police of Oakland, who is now on leave of absence from police duty and is acting as personnel officer and official censor, and Maj. Harry F. Huber, who was one of Funston's men in the Philippines.

The regiment undertook this longest of all field artillery regimental hikes to put it in trim for cross-country travel, because it expects to start for France before many weeks elapse. Col. Faneuf says this is the finishing touch, and it looks as though he speaks with authority, because the organization appears to be in magnificent shape for action.

Montebello is making plans for a pretty demonstration to be given the regiment, which is expected to pass through there shortly after noon today. The street through which the soldiers will march, Whittier boulevard, will be gay with flags and bunting and the road will be strewn with a carpet of flowers.

AT CITY LIMITS.

The regiment will be met at the city limits, by Mayor Woodman who will deliver an address of welcome. Besides the Mayor, Chief of Police Butler, an escort of mounted police, Mary Pickford, godmother of the regiment and scores of autos containing the relatives of members of Batteries A and F which are composed of Angelenos will be on hand to escort the regiment as it marches through the streets before making camp at Exposition Park.

Eighty society girls, members of the Patriotic League and known as the Canteen Club, will also meet the soldiers and welcome them with coffee, sandwiches and cigarettes.

After the address of welcome the regiment will march up town over the following route: Stevenson to Boyle, Boyle to First street, west on First street to Broadway, south on Broadway to Main, south on Main to Jefferson, west on Jefferson to Figueroa, south on Figueroa to Exposition Park.

BEGIN TRIAL FOR DRAFT EVASION AID.

BATTERIES OF LAWYERS PRESENT IN DOCTORING OF EYES CASE.

After a day of exhaustive examination, in which the defense practically used up its peremptory challenges, eight jurors were accepted and four more passed for cause at the trial before Federal Judge Bledsoe yesterday of Mrs. Idell Kennedy, Dr. Frank Howenstein and Joseph Le Roy, Jr., charged on three counts with conspiracy to defeat the selective draft law. The trial will be resumed tomorrow morning.

When the trial opened yesterday a battery of attorneys lined up for both the defense and the State. Mrs. Kennedy was represented by Le Compte Davis and C. G. De Garmo, W. H. Dehm, Paul Schenck and Frank E. Domingues appeared for Dr. Howenstein, and Earl Rogers and A. I. McCormick were on hand to look after the interests of Le Roy. United States District Attorney O'Connor conducted the prosecution, aided by Assistant United States Attorneys Palmer and Lawson.

Indictments were issued three months ago by the Federal grand jury charging that the defendants attempted to "doctor" the eyes of prospective draft eligibles so that they would be unable to pass the physical examination. Howenstein, an optometrist by profession, with offices in the Mason Building, is said to have treated the eyes of Le Roy by the injection of medicine and the fitting of glasses which temporarily unfitted him for the physical tests demanded by the military authorities.

Mrs. Kennedy is alleged to have been "agent in the field" for Howenstein.

TODAY
Memorial Day

The Great White Store Will Be Closed All Day

—Memorial day, this year, has a greater meaning to the hearts of America. This year we join in patriotic fervor in adding to our hymns of praise for the boys of '61, who preserved us a nation, the songs and praises for our brave and loyal boys in khaki "OVER THERE" who are fighting today that Democracy shall live in the world —that the ideals of humanity and freedom shall be preserved to the world.

—Let us pause for a day and pay tribute to Old Glory and to the heroes, past and present, who have made and preserved and defended America.

GOVERNOR CANDIDATE.

C. A. A. McGee, San Diego Lawyer and Republican, Enters the Gubernatorial Race.

C. A. A. McGee, formerly a prominent Wisconsin politician, but now a San Diego attorney, is the latest addition to the rapidly growing list of Republican candidates for Governor of California. Mr. McGee was one of the La Follette boosters in the Chicago Republican convention in 1912 and made the nominating speech for La Follette at that time. But he is not running on a La Follette peace-at-any-price platform for Governor here. He says that there are 17,000,000 acres of perfectly good land in California that are not now under cultivation. He has a plan for drafting the land and is making his campaign on a back-to-the-soil platform.

Mr. McGee is in the city for a few days, making surveys for location of political fences. He arrived here yesterday from a scouting trip through Northern California. He expresses supreme confidence that the electors of California will flock to his standard just as soon as it is fairly unfurled.

GIRD ESCAPES HOSPITAL.

Adelaine West, a measles patient in the juvenile ward of the County Hospital, escaped several nights ago, and because of her youth, 14 years, fears are entertained for her welfare. It is thought that someone in the neighborhood of her home, at No. 3707 Michigan avenue, may be secreting her. The father is anxious to hear from his daughter. Adelaine is five feet seven inches tall and weighs 120 pounds. She has dark brown hair and great blue eyes.

WOMEN ADOPT ORPHAN TRIO.

Three Little Girls in French Village to be Cared for; Funds Voted.

In response to a recent appeal by Mrs. Celia White, a member of the Committee for the Fatherless Children of France, to business women of Los Angeles to adopt a French orphan, thirty women employees of The Times received word yesterday from George Fusenot, chairman of the local committee, that three little girls living in the village of Spay, Sarte, France, have been assigned to them.

After Mrs. White's speech, delivered in the Times Assembly Hall, the women organized a club and at once voted to subscribe the funds necessary for the adoption. The children are all members of the same family and consist of twins and an elder girl. Miss Mary Wilcox of the accounting department is head of The Times Club.

SOMETHING WRONG?

Judge Thinks so When Man Found Wife with Another and Didn't Do Anything.

"There is something wrong with your story or something wrong with you," said Judge Jackson to Albert Lightfoot yesterday. Mr. Lightfoot was seeking a divorce from Minnie A. Lightfoot, and the evidence was that Mr. Lightfoot had surprised his wife in a San Francisco hotel with a man named in the complaint as John Cook.

"When you got in the room you said to your wife: 'How are you?' and she said: 'Fine.' The man was in the bathroom. You didn't do anything?

"No, I did not," replied Mr. Lightfoot.

"And yet you say you are from Missouri!" was the court's comment. The decree was granted, however.

CAN'T GET DIVORCE.

Couple's Case in Court Third Time and Again Decree is Denied by Judge.

Judge Wood denied Mrs. Henrietta B. Moyer a divorce from Clayton F. Moyer yesterday. This is the third time the parties have been in court, seeking a separation. The first action was dismissed and the second suit was denied. It appeared from the evidence yesterday that Mrs. Moyer ordered her husband to leave. She told him, it was stated, that either he would have to get out or she would.

The honeymoon of the couple was clouded by a quarrel on the first day. At the former trial Mrs. Moyer said she was kicked out of bed by Mr. Moyer when she objected to his snoring. He said she hit him on the head with a shoe and scratched his face.

WIDOW IS PETITIONER.

A petition was filed in the Probate Court, yesterday by Agnes W. Leonard, widow of William C. Leonard, who died last Friday, asking that she be named as administratrix of the estate without bond.

The will, which was executed September 2, 1916, leaves the household goods, pictures, etc., to the widow, and the residue of personal and real property is to be divided share and share alike between the widow, and the daughter Katharine Leonard Clemson. The value of the estate is given as not to exceed $150,000.
